RESIGNATION OF REV. MURDOCH MACKINNON, D. D.

Brother of Dr. D. L. MacKinnon, Ainslie Hospital, Truro.

(The Presbyterian and Westminster, Sept. 19.)

About the middle of August Dr. Murdoch MacKinnon, who was holidaying at the Coast, received word of his appointment as a Chaplain with the Canadian forces, his duties to begin at Calgary. Dr. MacKinnon, who had some time ago offered himself for this work, at once accepted the commission and forwarded his resignation of the pastorate of Knox Church, Regina, to the Clerk of Regina Presbytery.

The resignation was dealt with at the regular meeting of the Presbytery held Sept. 3rd. Commissioners from Knox Church expressed in the highest terms the congregation's appreciation of Dr. MacKinnon as a man, a pastor, a preacher, and a citizen; but stated that since Dr. MacKinnon had felt it his duty to enter upon this work they had agreed to acquiesce in the accepting of his resignation, undertaking to continue his salary to the end of the year. Very regretfully the Presbytery decided to accept the resignation, to take effect after Sept. 22nd, when Dr. MacKinnon is expected to preach his farewell sermons.

Rev. R. J. McDonald, of Carmichael Church, Regina, was appointed Interim Moderator during the vacancy.

The feeling of the members of Presbytery is expressed in the following resolution, passed by unanimous vote: "That this Presbytery of Regina accepts Dr. MacKinnon's resignation with the greatest regret at his departure. During his ministry of eight years in Knox Church, Regina, we have learned to know him as a man of sterling moral character, wide social vision, and determination and fearlessness in performing every duty however hard. Of his marked ability as preacher, organizer and pastor the progress of Knox Church during the term of his ministry bears ample evidence, and the extension of Presbyterianism in the city during that period speaks of the breadth of his outlook and sympathy. As a presbyter his clearheadedness and sound judgment won him the gratitude of the brethren. We desire to express our appreciation of the spirit of sacrifice manifested by Dr. and Mrs. MacKinnon in giving up a large salary to accept the emoluments of a chaplain, Dr. MacKinnon believing it to be his duty to thus serve his country and the Kingdom of God in the present crisis. We would also set on record our sense of the incalculable worth of the services he has rendered, not only to his own congregation, but to the city and yet more to the province of Saskatchewan. In this larger sphere he has proven himself a great force for righteousness. In the difficult days before us his assistance in solving the problems of the province will be greatly missed; but the impress of work he has done will, we are assured, remain. The prayer of his brethren of the Presbytery is that God will richly bless his work in his present position and spare him to render a yet larger service than the past to Church and country in the coming years."

THE WAR.

St. Quentin has been taken by the French.

British and Belgians are driving wedges further into Hindenburg Line. Great advances are being made in Aisne and Champagne.

Italians are getting ready for a new offensive.

On the western front of 400 the fight is raging over 350 miles.

The Canadians under Currie are facing 100,000 Huns, north of Cambrai.

Turkey, and even Austria, may follow the example of Bulgaria and get out of the war.

German newspapers say "with our backs to the wall death faces us."

All the German War Party Secretaries of State have resigned.

General Alenby has surrendered Damascus.

WAR LOAN BONDS NON-TAXABLE.

United States Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo is asking Congress for legislation to exempt war bonds from taxation up to $30,000 for the period of the war and for a limited time thereafter.

Mr. McAdoo finds this necessary in attempting to float his Fourth Liberty Loan, as it was said that the war loans in the United States would hereafter be taxable bonds. This certainly backs up the position of the Canadian Finance Minister, when he, in spite of the most powerful opposition, starts his new War Loan with issues of non-taxable bonds.

Whatever the difference of opinion in regard to taxation in Government War Loans we can do nothing in Canada but continue these tax-exempt Bonds; as having issued already $750,000,000 of such Bonds there would be a wish to seize these, and proposed issue of new Bonds, if becoming taxation, would prove a failure.

In Canada this exemption only refers to Federal action the Provincial Governments can tax income from these Bonds, as do incomes from any source, if revenue exigencies require such.

THE TORPEDOED MISSANABIE

An Atlantic Port, Sept. 30. Three Canadian officers, Captain W. MacKenzie, Lt. W. S. Anderson, and Lt. A. E. Coapman, who were on the Canadian Pacific Liner Missanabie, when she was sunk, by a submarine, on Sept. 9, off the English coast arrived here today with several survivors of the crew on their way home to Canada. The officers said that the Missanabie, was struck by two torpedoes on the starboard side, one in the engine room and the other further aft, which blew a big hole in her side, thru which the sea poured so rapidly that the vessel went down stern first, in seven minutes.

The attack was made at eleven o'clock in the morning without warning and there was a heavy sea running. There were only about sixty passengers on board, the officers said, and there was no difficulty in getting the life boats away from the port side. Some capized, after leaving the ship, and ten passengers and forty of the crew, were drowned, including the two stewardesses and chief officer. Several non-commissioned officers and soldiers were passengers in the second class and stateroom jumped over board as they had not time to get to their boats.

The resignation was dealt with at the regular meeting of the Presbytery held Sept. 3rd. Commissioners from Knox Church expressed in the highest terms the congregation's appreciation of Dr. MacKinnon as a man, a pastor, a preacher, and a citizen; but stated that since Dr. MacKinnon had felt it his duty to enter upon this work they had agreed to acquiesce in the accepting of his resignation, undertaking to continue his salary to the end of the year. Very regretfully the Presbytery decided to accept the resignation, to take effect after Sept. 22nd, when Dr. MacKinnon is expected to preach his farewell sermons.

ANOTHER EARFUL ABOUT SUNFLOWERS.

The Canada School Board says; the supply of fats and oil has become so depleted in Germany that extensive cultivation of sunflowers has been urged as a potential source of edible oil. Last year the German Government offered premiums for the cultivation of sunflowers, and railroad right-of-ways in Germany are extensively used for this purpose.

As much as 18 gallons of oil can be secured from the seeds of an acre of sunflowers, while the refuse makes excellent cattle feed.

Save your sunflower seeds now for the chicks, and bear in mind that plenty of sunflowers should be planted next year. They are useful as well as decorative.

A NOVELTY! DON'T MISS IT.

Don't forget the W. S. C. concert, Friday, Oct. 4th, 8 p. m. at Assembly Hall, Agricultural College.

A concert at Bible Hill is a novelty, therefore every one should come. Tickets are 15 cts. and you'll get your money's worth.

Proceeds are for the "wounded Soldier's Comforts" in Nursing Sister, Marion Ellis's ward.

If you haven't secured a ticket one can be obtained from any member of the club or at the door Friday evening.

CURED HIS RUPTURE.

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses die me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me.

Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 556 E. Marcellus Avenue, Manassas, N. J.

Better cut out this notice and show it to others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of a rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

HILL-McCURDY WEDDING

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Presbyterian church Old Barns, on Wednesday afternoon, at 5.30 o'clock. The contracting parties were Mr. George Seldon Hill, son of Mr. Charles Hill, Onslow, and Annie Evelyn McCurdy, daughter of Mrs. W. D. McCurdy, Old Barns.

The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Davies, assisted by Rev. A. A. McCurdy, D. D., uncle of the bride.

The bride looked charming, dressed in satin de chene with fringe trimmings and bridal veil. She carried a lovely bouquet of white roses and ferns; and, to the strains of the bridal march, entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. Percy McCurdy, who gave her away.

The church was most tastefully and beautifully decorated with bowers and arches, and a variety of palms, ferns, and a bell of flowers etc. The large number of people present at the ceremony evidenced the popularity of both bride and bridegroom.

The bride's cousin, Isabel Wallace with her beautiful basket of flowers made a dainty little flower girl.

The ushers were Mr. Clarence Hill, brother of bridegroom, and James Reed, cousin of bride, whilst Mr. Raymond McCurdy cousin of bride played the wedding marches.

The reception immediately followed the ceremony at the bride's home, where a large number of guests were served with refreshments. The presents were both numerous and costly, including a number of cut glass and a quantity of silver and china and several cheques which totalled a goodly sum.

After the reception the bride and bridegroom left for a trip to New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, where the honeymoon will be spent.

The bride wore as a travelling dress a blue serge tailored suit with ostrich ruff and taupe hat. They are followed by the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

On their return they will reside at Onslow. The bride will be greatly missed from the church at Old Barns, where she was an active worker, and Sunday School teacher.

A Power of its Own.

Dr. Thomas Electric Oil, has a subtle power of its own, that other oils cannot pretend to, though there are many pretenders. All who have used it, know this and keep it by them as the most valuable liniment available. Its uses are innumerable and for many years it has been prized as the leading liniment for man and beast.

SMASHING AWAY.

The war news is of the most cheerful kind. We are smashing the enemy in a way that seems almost incomprehensible.

From Arras to La Fere the Allies have during the past four days along more than 50 miles of a front delivered smashing blows that have hurled the enemy back.

The counter-attacks given with desperation have been powerless to stay the onrush of British French and American troops.

The Canadians have bodily assailed Cambrai.

The French has prest over the Aisne River; and away north those gallant Belgian fighters with British help have recorded another successful onslaught at the Huns.

The Canadians in one day penetrated five miles got hold of the Canal du Nord and captured the ridge in the evening.

over-looking Cambrai. They have bagged nearly 4000 prisoners and out of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bowcasualties are less than our prisoners. In one week on all fronts the Allies have got 100,000 prisoners advanced.

The terms of any armistice will be dictated by the Bulgarian army to fight on their side.

The whole of Bulgaria is eager for peace and Anti-German riots are everywhere assumed a serious character.

Germany is trying to rush reinforcements to the Bulgars to save their situation.

The terms of the Allies are plain but stringent. Bulgaria will not be allowed to withdraw from the war and assume the position of a neutral territory she has gained by arms.

It is all good; and this week opens with a clear sky before the Allies.

LADY-FRASER WEDDING

A pretty wedding came off at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Frasers, Harmony, Colchester County, N. S., Sept. 25th, at three o'clock, when her youngest daughter, Beatrice Minnie, was united in marriage to Stephen B. Lade, station agent, Salsprings, Cumberland County, N. S.

The officiating clergyman was the Rev. J. A. Bradley, of Valley. Both the bride and groom were unattended.

The bride looked lovely, dressed in pearl grey, silk, white trimmings, wearing a bridal veil and carrying a bouquet of bridal roses, and maiden hair fern. She was given away by her father, and entered the parlor to the strains of "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden", rendered by her sister, Mrs. C. F. Christie.

Following the ceremony a dainty lunch was served by the girl friends of the bride.

The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue serge, with blue hat and plume. The gifts were beautiful and useful. The groom's gift to the bride, was a check and to the organist a gold brooch-set with pearls.

Mr. and Mrs. Lade, and wedding party motored to Truro Station and boarded the train for St. Johns and other places.

Friends join, in wishing them a long and happy married life.

ENTERTAINMENT AT TATMAGOUCHE

Sept. 28. The Musical entertainment given by Mrs. Basil McCum, Stellarton, under the auspices of the Women's Institute, was a decided success. The evening of the 21th was very stormy making it impossible for a good many to be present. Those who braved the elements, however, were rewarded by a great musical treat. The hearty applause which followed each number showed that Mrs. McCum, Mr. Stuard, and their accompanied Miss Goode were fully appreciated by the audience.

The instrumental music by Mrs. R. E. Byers, and Mr. J. M. Bonyman, the recitation by Louise McKay, and the piano solo by Miss Geneva Byers, and were exceptionally well rendered.

Much of the success of the evening was due to the leader of the "Overseas Benefit Orchestra, Mr. D. N. Kent. With only a few days in which to prepare a program and four of the members unavoidably absent it would seem an impossibility to most people. Under the circumstances the very creditable performance they gave was a proof of the ability and talent of the orchestra.

The proceeds of the entertainment will be used by the Women's Institute in buying material for Red Cross work.

Keith Soley has been with in Truro for some days this week.

are glad to report that later has been received by Mrs. Ward. Pte. George Ward, who was missing. He is now in a hospital and doing well. We extend our congratulations.

F. G. Francis took his departure for his new pastorate at Creditable performance they gave Bay. Mr. Francis went by ship with his team, and we wish him a pleasant journey. All regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Francis will be missed.

Una Layton leaves tonight for Boston. She will assist in nursing some of the unfortunate victims of the epidemic raging there now.

Elsie Layton leaves this week for Wolfville, where she will resume her studies at Acadia College.

A. S. Kent, arrived home to-day after visiting her brother, Mr. Reid, Stewiacke for a number of days.

Ellie MacLean has been at her home in Springville during this week. Sunday School convention was held in St. James Presbyterian church Tuesday, last.

The afternoon session was presided over by Rev. W. M. Gillespie, and addresses being given by Rev. Fraser, St. Andrew's, and Rev. F. G. Milligan, of the Ainslie.

The meetings were attended by a large number of the community, the weather preventing a large attendance in the evening.

regret was among the many learned of the receipt of a letter from Mrs. W. W. Bowers, who had been killed in the Hindenburg explosion on Sept. 2nd.

The overseas with that unit in October, and the Allies may some years he attended school in Saloniki; and during the year to his enlistment had been a member of the Baptist church here. His numerous friends were deeply grieved by the news of his death.

Germany is trying to rush reinforcements to the Bulgars to save their situation.

The terms of the Allies are plain but stringent. Bulgaria will not be allowed to withdraw from the war and assume the position of a neutral territory she has gained by arms.
