OPENING THE LIBRARY

The Athens Public Library was opened on Thursday evening last and the large number of books that have since entered into circulation testifies to the need that existed for such an institution. The reading room has been very popular, and when properly furnished it will be the resort for a very large number of young and old.

The library will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from 6.30 to 8.30. Those wishing to become members are requested to leave their names and fees to Jan. 1st, 1904 (25c) with Mr. J. H. McLaughlin, the librarian. A large number of new books have been placed on the shelves and this number will be doubled in the course of a few weeks.

The best daily and weekly papers are open to the public daily from 2 to 9.30 p.m. in the reading room, and when the files to keep each number in permanent position arrive, the reader will be saved much trouble in searching for his favorite magazine or paper.

LADIES' AID OFFICERS

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. W. F. Earl on Thursday afternoon last and the following officers for the coming year were elected—

President—Mrs. I. C. Alguire.
 1st Vice—Mrs. T. G. Stevens.
 2nd Vice—Mrs. A. Kendrick.
 Secretary—Mrs. J. H. Ackland.
 Treasurer—Mrs. E. S. Clow.

SATURDAY BASEBALL

In the forenoon of Saturday last the Public School team defeated the Y.B. C.A. team by a score of 17 to 13.

In the afternoon a small crowd gathered at the baseball grounds to witness the match between the Benedicts and the Bachelors and as there were more than enough Benedicts who wanted to play to make up a team, two games were arranged. The first was between the old Ben's and the juvenile players of Athens and resulted in a win for the former by a score of 7 to 4. The later match was between the newly-made Benedicts and the Bach's proper and resulted in a victory for the patrons of single blessedness by a score of 5 to 4. In the first match Wiley, of the winners, more than distinguished himself on first base.

CLUBBING OFFER

This is the time of year when newspapers arrange for next year's business, and the Reporter makes the following special offer:—

UNTIL JAN. 1, 1905

The Athens Reporter, combined with any of the above weekly papers will be sent to new subscribers from now until the end of 1904 for $2.00. Present subscribers for the Reporter will be given a special rate for any of these city papers.

A GREAT EXHIBIT

The friends of Delta Fair have contributed an exceptionally fine lot of special prizes for the exhibition on Sept. 29 and 30. The D. W. Karn Co., of Woodstock, through their agent, W. W. Phelps, Delta, offer a $50 organ for the best collection of ladies' work, and as a second prize on this exhibit Mr. G. L. Riches, proprietor of the Island City Music Store, Brockville, offers a $7 violin. These very liberal prizes will no doubt bring out an immense display, and every lady in the county should see it. A large number of articles valued at from $3 to $6 are offered for competition in other classes, and it is probable that at this fair the Society's fine buildings will contain the largest and best exhibit ever shown in Delta.

Be Quick

Not a minute should be lost after a child shows symptoms of cholera infantum. The first unusual looseness of the bowels should be sufficient warning. If immediate and proper treatment is given, serious consequences will be averted. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the sole reliance of thousands of mothers and by its aid they have often saved their children's lives. Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it to-day. It may save a life. For sale by J. P. Lamb & Son.

John W. Russell, Delta, has been appointed bailiff of the 6th division court of Leeds & Grenville, in place of Walter H. Denant, deceased.

Dysentery causes the death of more people than small pox and yellow fever combined. In an army it is dreaded more than a battle. It requires prompt and effecting treatment. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery in the United States with perfect success, and has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions. Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it to-day. It may save a life. Sold by J. P. Lamb & Son.

ATTACKED BY A BULL

Mrs. Gifford, wife of Mr. Geo. Gifford, a farmer living just out of Portland village nearly met her death on Thursday last from the ferocious attack of a three year old bull. The animal, although reputed to be "ugly" had up to milking time that evening never shown any disposition to attack any of the family, but for some reason on the evening in question he suddenly rushed on the unfortunate woman and tossed her into the air tearing an ugly wound almost penetrating to the bowels and followed this up by a second onslaught inflicting a gash almost as bad as the first one. Mr. Gifford attacked the animal drawing the brute's attention to himself and it would have fared badly with Mr. Gifford strong and active as he is, had not his dog seized the bull by the nose and hung on until the infuriated beast was thoroughly subdued. During Friday and Saturday Mrs. Gifford suffered severely and it was scarcely hoped she could live but the wounds although very deep did not penetrate the bowels and she is in a fair way to recovery. The animal had been sold and was to have been taken away that day.—Record

MORRIS—SINGLETON

On Wednesday last, 9th inst., at high noon at St. Luke's Anglican church, Lyndhurst, the rector, Rev. Mr. Metzler, performed the marriage ceremony that united for life Miss Marguerite J. Singleton, daughter of Mrs. John Singleton, of that place, to Mr. Fred Morris, of Forfar. The guests present were the relatives and intimate friends of both parties. The bride was gowned in a costume of white silk and crepe de chene, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Eva Singleton, was gowned in white taffeta silk with over-lace, and carried a bouquet of carnations. The maid of honor, Miss Jessie Singleton, wore voile with over-lace, while the flower girl, Miss Mildred Singleton, was gowned in white organza and carried daisies. The attendants on the bride were all nieces.

The Proper Treatment for a Sprained Ankle

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. For sale by J. P. Lamb & Son.
