International Bible Lesson for Tonorrow-Elijah Encouraged - First Kings, 19, 9-18.

Golden Text-"Fear tho unot, for I am with thee."-Isa. 4, 10.

This lesson is a continuance of ou Inis lesson is a continuance of our last, giving us Elijah at Mount Horeb, and is in marked contrast to his late victory on Mount Carmel. Like Christian in Loubting Castle, we find our hero lodging in a dim, damp cave, hiding for his life, when he is chal-lenged with the word of the Lord, "What dost thou here, Elijah?"

His answer, with three big I's in t, and four accusations against Isra-el, is a poor excuse for his defeat and flight from a bad woman's revenge—but he was only a man of like passions with us, after all, and was looking at the dark side and not on God

Here were 100 prophets saved and fed by Obdiah, 850 false prophets slain. Fire from Jehovah had convinced the people of their sin; three and a half years' drought and famine were ended and plenty restored, and he was not the only man; God had 7,000 others who never bowed the knee to Baal nor kissed his images. There are always more good people amongst men than many good men think. Leaders often show the weakness of their humanity when called into spiritual conflict by failing at the strong points of their character, proving that man at his best is altogether vanity, without God. This is a lesson all those who serve God must learn. Here were 100 prophets saved and s a lesson must learn,

God again honors Elijah by sending him to annoint Hazel king over Syria and John king over Israel, and Elisha be be his successor in office when He-superannuates him, about the heaviest cross of all.

"Was troubled with female weakness, heavy, bearing-down pains, severe pain in back and head, and a tired, worn-out feeling all the time. Tried all the remedies we could hear off, but they did no good. Finally we wrote to you and my wife commenced taking 'Favorite Prescription.'
