LOGIC.

"Look here, waiter, this pudding is wrongly named," grumbled a guest when brought the ice cream pudding she had ordered. "There ought to be ice cream served with it."

"Cannot help it, mum," replied the waiter. "We don't name the puddings. Besides, you don't get a cottage with a cottage pudding, you know."

Cupid used to aim his dart at a maiden's fragile heart. Now he aims, with cunning look, at her father's pocket book.

THERE ARE OTHERS.

Teacher—"Johnny, can you tell me what great crime Nero was guilty of?"

Johnny—"Yes'm. He played the fiddle."

EMERGENCY WAR-CHESTS.

Money Does not Last Long When War Begins.

The $30,000,000 in gold, which Germany keeps hoarded up in the Julius Tower at Spandau against the next great European war, and which certain clerical members of the Reichstag recently wanted to convert to other and more immediate needs of the Empire, is not a great sum as Government war-chests go. In the event of hostilities breaking out with, say, France, it would probably be exhausted inside of a week.

True, in the war of 1870-71, Bismarck made the $25,000,000 he had on hand last over the first fortnight. But wars then were not nearly so costly as they have since become.

Russia possessed a war-chest of $200,000,000 when hostilities broke out between her and Japan in 1904. Or, at all events, so she asserted. Yet she was borrowing money freely before the campaign was four weeks old.

This, by the bye, was the biggest "kriegsschatz" (emergency war-chest) ever got together by any nation, although the United States once bid fair to equal it. This was after the civil war of 1861-65, when the Government at Washington was in such dire straits for money that it notes sank in value until they would fetch something less than one-third their face value.

One of the first things it did, consequently, when public credit was at length fully restored, was to start a "kriegsschatz" with an eye to future emergencies. Its war treasure, however, was not in gold, but in coined silver, and the weight of this presently broke down the walls of the treasury, the resultant avalanche of dollars killing, and temporarily burying, several unhappy clerks.

After this experience, the United States determined to rely, as does Britain, on her ordinary bank reserve.

SKILLED.

"How did you acquire such skill?" asked the inquisitive one of the clever juggler.

"Why, I have a natural talent—hereditary, I might say. My father used to eat peas with a knife."

MOTHERS!

Give the Children a Chance

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box 100, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Everything he wants will come to the man who waits until he doesn't want anything.

They Cleanse the System Thoroughly.—Parmelee's Vegetable Pills clear the stomach and bowels of bilious matter, cause the excretory vessels to throw off impurities from the blood into the bowels and expel the deleterious mass from the body. They do this without pain or inconvenience to the patient, who speedily realizes their good offices as soon as they begin to take effect. They have strong recommendations from all kinds of people.

They met in the street. "Do you remember me?" "Can't say that I do." "Well, just ten years ago to-night I asked you for a match at this corner. You gave it to me, I went home, lit the match, accidentally burnt the house down, and got a thousand dollars insurance. I am glad of an opportunity to reward you." "With—?" "With another match."

SALADA TEA

The final luxury of tea-drinking, the quality which distinguishes it as the world's best, is assured users of "Salada" Tea. Ask your grocer.

DEAR OLD DAYS.

"Why do you stick out the middle finger of your right hand so straight while you are eating?" asked the compassionate woman. "Was it broken?"

"No, mum," answered the hobo, with a sniffe. "But during my halcyon days I wore a diamond ring on that finger, and old habits are hard to break, mum."

Lord Lewson—"Why, Pat, there used to be two windmills there." Pat—"Thrus for you, sir." Lord Lewson—"Why is there but one now?" Pat—"Bedad, they took one down to lave more wind for t'other."

Do you happen to know a fathos who would want his son to follow in his footsteps?

CANINE SUPERINTENDENT.

On Allan Line Docks at Liverpool, "Jack" Starts Day's Work.

A retriever known as Jack has taken upon himself the duties of canine superintendent of the Allan Line at The Canada dock, Liverpool. As soon as one of the company's steamers arrives he is the first up the plank, making tracks for the galley, where the cook awaits him with a bone.

At 7 o'clock every morning he ushers the dock laborers to their work, barking at the head of the procession. He accompanies them out to dinner, and leads them in again for the afternoon. Jack at 1 o'clock then may go a mile away to board an Allan steamer in the graving dock, but he never makes the mistake of going on a wrong vessel.

900 CUBIC FEET OF GOLD.

All the gold mined during the year 1908, says Mr. T. F. Van Wageningen, could be packed into a room 10 feet square and 9 feet high. The value of this gold is about $400,000,000, and its weight is nearly 674 tons. Since the discovery of America the world has mined altogether about 21,424 tons of gold. That part of the globe controlled by the Anglo-Saxon race has been the most prolific in gold, having produced five-sixths of the total amount mined in 1908.

RACE FOLLOWING.

Wig—"Bjones follows the races, doesn't he?"

Wagg—"Yes, that is, I've never heard that he was ever ahead of them."

The Crick in the Back—"One touch of nature makes the whole world kin," sings the poet. But what about the touch of rheumatism and lumbago, which is so common now? There is no poetry in that touch, for it renders life miserable. Yet how delighted is the sense of relief when an application of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil drives pain away. There is nothing equals it.

"Why, Jimmie, is it true that you gave little Bobbie a black eye?" "Y-essum." "What excuse have you for such a brutal act?" "Well, he provoked me." "How did he provoke you?" "He hit me back!"

Weak and Pale Women foolishly keep this way when they use of Ferrerin. The best tonic, they could very quickly recover their health and strength. Try it.

Hewson—"That man Scalper has a natural bent towards speculation." Hume—"Yes, and the last time he bent too far and got broken."

They Advertise Themselves.—Immediately they were offered to the public, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills became popular because of the good report they made for themselves. That reputation has grown, and they now rank among the first medicines for use in attacks of dyspepsia and biliousness, complaints of the liver and kidneys, rheumatism, fever and ague and the innumerable complications to which these ailments give rise.

"Dat boy," said the negro sadly, as he prepared to administer to little Ephraim Rastus his eighth spanking in the last three days, "is a mighty bad boy. He's de white sheep of de family."

Regarded as one of the most potent compounds ever introduced with which to combat all summer complaints and inflammation of the bowels, Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial has won for itself a reputation that no other cordial for the purpose can aspire to. For young or old suffering from these complaints it is the best medicine that can be procured.

An old woman of the name of Gordon, in the North of Scotland, was listening to the account given in Scripture of Solomon's glory, which was read to her by a little grandchild. When the little girl came to tell of the thousand camels which formed part of the Jewish Sovereign's live stock, "Eh lassie," cried the old woman, "a thousand Campholla, say ye! The Campbells are an auld clan, sure enouch; but dinna ye see the Gordons, too?"

Looks now as though we ought to have a good ice crop.

ALL RUN DOWN.

Miss Della Stroebe, who had Completely Lost Her Health, Found Relief from Pe-runa at Once.

Read What She Says:

MISS DELLA STROEBE, 710 Richmond St., Appleton, Wis., writes: "For several years I was in a run-down condition, and I could find no relief from doctors and medicines. I could not enjoy my meals, and could not sleep at night. I had heavy, dark circles about the eyes.

"My friends were much alarmed. I was advised to give Peruna a trial, and to my joy I began to improve with the first bottle. After taking six bottles I felt completely cured. I cannot say too much for Peruna as a medicine for women in a run-down condition."

Pe-ru-na Did Wonders.

Mrs. Judge J. P. Boyer, 1421 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill., says that she became run down, could neither eat nor sleep well, and lost flesh and spirit. Peruna did wonders for her, and she thanks Peruna for new life and strength.

"How did the wedding come off to-day?" "Without a hitch." "Glad to hear it." "I said without a hitch. The bride backed out at the last minute."

You cannot be happy while you have corns. Then do not delay in getting a bottle of Holloway's Corn Cure. It removes all kinds of corns without pain. Failure with it is unknown.

Miss Dressington (to little boy who is sidling up to her)—"What do you want, dear—to give me a kiss?" Little Boy—"No, I want my bread-'n'-butter that you're sittin' on!"

Scratching is foolish; it only makes a bad matter worse. Weaver's Ointment allays the pain, cleanses the skin, and soothes and cures. Why not buy a bottle today?

The Bank of England is empowered by its charter to sell any goods or merchandise upon which it has advanced money, and which have not been redeemed.

Help your children to grow strong and robust by counteracting anything that causes ill-health. One great cause of disease in children is worms. Remove them with Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. It never fails.

Third-Floor Tenant—"See here! I'm one of a committee of men in this building, and I've called to ask you to sell your fute." Second-Floor Tenant—"Delighted to see you. I am one of another committee, and was about to come up and ask if you'd sell your baby."

RECIPES FOR LONG LIFE.

Thomas Kelly, of Ballygawley, County Tyrone, Ireland, who at 107 climbed a ladder and repaired his own roof, is the latest centenarian to give to the world his recipe for old age, which is made up of "plain food, early rising, hard work, a sparing use of alcohol, plenty of fresh mountain air," says the Westminster Gazette. A Mrs. Mary Bradley attributed her good health at 101 to her lifelong indulgence in a daily cold bath. Miss Eliza Works at 105 said:—"I attribute my long life to temperate habits and to my favorite diet of bread and milk. I never ate sweetmeats or drank tea or coffee."
