

A WEEKLY JOURNAL

EDITOR and PROPRIETOR

Whole No. 1526

MILIVON

Texans You Know Who Say They Have Been Cured by Mun-yon's Remedies.

Sample Testimonials

Picked at Random from the

Mr. Donald McDonald, 74, Remel street, Montreal, Canada, says: "For years I suffered from dyspepsia. I was not able to eat anything that did not give me severe distress. I was constantly sick at my stomach, and in the morning I would feel vomit. My appetite failed me and I lost considerable flesh. I could not get relief. I determined to try Munson's Remedy, and in a few days I was cured. My appetite is good and I can eat any thing without trouble."

Munson's Rheumatic Cure never fails to relieve in 2 to 3 hours, and cures in a few days. Price 25c.

Munson's Dyspepsia Cure positively cures all forms of indigestion and stomach aches troubles. Price, 25c.

Monnyon's Cough Cure stops coughs, night sweats, allays soreness, and speedsily heals the lungs. Price, 25c.

Monnyon's Kidney Cure speedily cures pains in the back, loins or groins and all forms of kidney disease. Price, 25c.

Monnyon's Nerve Cure stops nervousness and builds up the system. Price, 25c.

Monnyon's Catarrh Remedies never fail. The Catarrh Cure—price 25c—indicates the disease from the catarrh.

Munyon's Asthma Cure and Herbal relieve asthma in three minutes and cure in five days. Price, 50 cents each.

Munyon's Headache Cure stops head ache in three minutes. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Pile Ointment positively cures all forms of piles. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Vitalizer restores lost power to weak men. Price, $1.00.
A separate cure for each disease. A all druggists, 25c. a bottle.
Personal letters to Professor Munyon 11 12 Alhambra street, Toronto, Ontario.

others as an instrument for his punishment, he (Coun. T.) would vote to pay the costs of the defence.

Inspector personally. Menzies belonged to his parish and was a good neighbor and a good man. But he was not here to help any one man to escape the result of his blunders, but to do justice to the country.

Coun. Anderson said a good deal rested on the Inspector's word. He claimed to have paid Hill money, and Hill denied it. The Council had no right to keep an officer whose word it would not take on oath.

Coun. Mersereau said he was one of the hardest men on run and rum-sellers.

the effects of them. He felt that they should back up the inspector. As long as they kept him they should back him.

Coun. J. Sullivan would like to see Menzies supported. We needed a Inspector, and he had no fault to find.

him. But they had appointed a committee of impartial men, friends of the inspector, and they had not been able to report in favor of payment. The Committee could not go back on a committee that had taken so much trouble with the case.

Menzies had paid Hill or not. If they had, the committee had declined to recommend it. What would the people say? Mr. Menzies should have taken receipts for Coun. Watt said that the committee had merely said that the evidence was simply had the effect of bringing the matter back to the Council. The committee could not agree. (Coun. Hayes: We all agreed.) They should have had Hill's evidence before them. If they had elected to get all the evidence they had tion of hardship for the ratepayers but a question of standing by a public officer. It had been said that Menzies should have settled the case for $225 when Hill offered to take that sum, but have given it to him. If he had paid Hill $25, after he had declared that he owed him nothing, the Council would have refused, and very properly refused to repay it. He was the servant of the Council, and not the other way around.

to do, and should be sustained as a matter of principle. If they expected published officers to do their duty, as they would have it done, they must stand by them.

Mr. Menzies stood in the position of a he had taken legal advice. It still had brought a case into court, and put the inspector to expense unjustly, should not the Council stand by its officer? H

(Continued on 2nd page.)