LONDON, Jan. 28 .- Great interest still centres in the post-war profits of spinners in the wool textile trade. W. Mackinder, who first made allegations before the Central Profiteering Committee, is making the subject the main plank of his platform in the municipal campaign at Bradford. Mr. Mackinder, in a speech, said the Government had made more than $30,-000,000 profit in wool deals last year.

One of the most remarkable was No Red-Headed he case of Von Spee. If it is true and it was reported on very good authority, it does credit to the German admiral, who showed a rare spirit and delicacy. After the Battle of Coronel the German colony at Valparaiso gave a banquet to celebrate the occasion, at which the final toast was estruction to the British Navy."

It is said that Von Spee immediate rose and said that neither he nor is officers cared to respond to the toast, and they withdrew.

The personality of Abraham Lip coln has been vividly brought to the minds of playgoers lately, and all his biographers agree that the great president had premonition of the tragic death which befell him on April 14. 1865. Of the danger of assassination he was fully aware, and at a cabinet meeting on the morning of the fatal day he was observed to wear a grave and troubled look. When Gen. Grant asked what was the matter he said he had had a strange dream, but did not say what it was. In the afternoon his mood changed to one of extreme gaiety, and his wife remarked uneasily: "I have seen you thus only once before, and that was just before our Willie died."
