Why the Surplus.

From the fact that the business of our legislature is this session of deepest interest and concern to all classes in the community we deem it necessary to be a little more exhaustive in our reports than the proceedings might seem to require.

The Budget.

As a sign of prosperity is about to dawn for this Province if the Premier's prognostications materialize.

At the receipt of a pan out at all near the estimate, and we very much doubt if they will, the government should meet the home next year with a surplus.

It is all the more to be expected when we remember the Premier's declaration that not one cent over the supplies voted by the House will be expended.

Legislative Notes.

Procrastination in the legislature is already in view and may possibly be reached by Saturday next.

Mr. Bell even went so far Monday night as to condemn the enormous outlay upon roads in the Premier's district last year.

A disastrous land slide took place Sunday night at St. James, between the Parades, below the St. Lawrence and Quebec.

Provincial Legislature.

Mr. Bell evinces a strong predilection to criticize and denounce the spendthrift acts of the government during the past year.

Mr. Shaw's very able speech on the budget we are unable to complete in this issue. It was a forcible arraignment of the past and a declaration of the Premier's and his government in their pre-emption pledges to the country.

While in supply Monday night Mr. Shaw threw down the gauntlet to the government and dared them to take up the challenge.

Timorous mortal start and shrink.

Mr. Sinclair followed and spoke into the House address on April 26. He was very eloquent and pointed out the defects in the present system.

Mr. Gordon on Monday night again brought up the question of a Registry Office for King's County.

Rev. D. M. McDonald, of Tignish, returned Saturday from Montreal. Mr. T. J. Dillon, has returned having suspended the various schools during the session.

John A. Macdonald, M. P. P., Indian River, Thomas W. Dobb, Charlottetown; John Baldwin, North Wilshire; and Benjamin Rogers, Alberton, are now entitled to the prefix "Honorable."

Provincial Legislature.

The Premier's speech was a remarkable statement, to say the least. The Leader of the Opposition also made a speech.
