

Nfld. Highlanders*ATTEND DIVINE SERVICE.

Yesterday morning the Newfoundland Highlanders, numbering about 25, under command of Lieut.-Col. W. H. Herder, O.C., attended the Congregational Church, where an eloquent sermon was preached to them by the Rev. D. L. Nichol, Pastor of the Church. Taking for his text, Revelation 2-10 "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life," the preacher treated his hearers to a masterly discourse, dividing his subject into three heads, viz:—1st, Loyalty to Christ; 2nd, Loyalty to our Church; and 3rd, Loyalty to our Country.

In the course of his remarks Mr. Nichol made mention of several notable incidents in military and civil life, of what "Loyalty" to duty meant, strongly urging on all present the necessity of being faithful to the great "Captain" of all, and emphasizing the ultimate reward to be obtained.

Before the sermon, the pastor welcomed the Highlanders to Queen's Rd. Congregational Church—although he himself was a comparative stranger to them, they were not strangers to the Church as the Memorial Tablet in its walls contained the names of some of their old comrades in arms, who had been faithful to duty even unto death.

The service all through was an inspiring one, the congregational singing being hearty, whilst the choir rendered the anthem "Rejoice greatly O Daughter of Zion," in a very pleasing manner.

After the Benediction was pronounced, the service was closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

The Highlanders on parade attracted the attention of many citizens on the line of march, to and from the Church. Before the parade was dismissed Mr. Reid, the photographer, took a panoramic photo of the full Battalion on the Parade Ground.

Obituary

Martin Christopher, whose death occurred at the City Hospital a few days ago, following an illness of several months, was a native of Tanyen Norway, but had lived in Sydney 17 years. He was 74 years of age and during the early part of his life followed the sea, sailing on schooners all over the world. He afterwards settled in St. John's, Newfoundland, where he married his first wife, Ellen White, who died several years ago. His second wife was formerly Jane Neal, a sister of the late George Neal, a prominent merchant of St. John's. The late Mr. Christopher came to Sydney in 1907, and until a few weeks of the time of his death he was an employee at the machine shop of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company's plant. Besides his second wife he is survived by three sons, James Christopher, of Sydney; Thomas Christopher, of St. John's; and John Christopher, of Grand Falls, Newfoundland, as well as by a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Nelson, of Boston, all children by his first wife. One brother, Bernard Christopher, of Norway, also survives. Funeral services at the funeral, which was held at Sacred Heart Church, were as follows: Sprays, Miss Pauline Smith, Captain George Rumsey, Mr. and Mrs. James Graven; cut flowers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mercer, and Mr. and Mrs. George Cunningham and Miss Martha Cunningham; wreath, the employees of the machine shop of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company. Spiritual offerings were also received from Mr. and Mrs. James Christopher, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dawe and Mrs. Dawe and Miss Josie Dawe.—Sydney Post.
