MERCURY OFFICE, GUELPH, June 30, 1869.

Several articles have advanced in the course of the week. There is, however, very little steadiness in the market. Wheat has been some seven cents higher for the last report, but this morning it seems a little easier. Oats are somewhat higher, and barley is merely nominal. No person cares much about buying barley at present, for so little is offered that there is but slight prospect of being able to make up a car load, so that it will not bring what it is really worth, and what would be readily given if the receipts were heavier. Those who have any of this grain would be as well to keep it for a time. Wool is flagging, the rush of the season is over, and prices have somewhat declined. Eggs are also down, and butter is steady, with a better supply.

IRON IN THE BLOOD.

The necessity of a due proportion of iron in the blood is well known to all medical men; when it becomes reduced from any cause whatever, the whole system suffers, the weakest point being first attacked, and a feeling of languor, headache and "all-goneness" pervades the system. Stimulants only afford temporary relief, and have the same effect as giving a tired horse the whip instead of oats. The true remedy is to supply the blood with the necessary quantity of iron. This can be done by using the PERUVIAN SYRUP, a protected solution of the protoxide of iron, which is so prepared that it assimilates at once with the blood, giving strength, vigor and new life to the whole system. To take medicine to cure diseases occasioned by a deficiency of iron in the blood, without restoring to the system, is like trying to repair a building when the foundation is gone. An eminent divine says: "I have been using the Peruvian Syrup for some time past—it gives me new vigour, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle." Pamphlets containing certificates of cures, and recommendations from some of the most eminent physicians, clergymen and others, will be sent free to any address. The genuine has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass. Sold by all druggists.
