

THE SINS OF MEN

the reports appearing in some of the papers. He was always prepared to stand by what he said. "Bro. Crossley and I have the ears of Canada because we have a clear record, we are not adventurers."

"I always enjoy talking to men more than I do talking to women," said Mr. Crossley, "they are more imposing than the ladies. I am not saying anything derogatory about the ladies, being a ladies man myself. People of the west were not nobby-pomby men who wore silk gloves, but were men who appreciated a good blow straight from the shoulder provided it was not below the belt."

Mr. Crossley then took his text from Romans 6 c. 23 v. "For the wages of Sin is Death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Mr. Crossley dealt with the three prevalent sins peculiar to men, the first was idleness, Satan finds work for idle men to do. "Don't be guilty of standing round street corners, bar rooms or barber shops. It was a curious thing that the sons of rich, and great men, scarcely ever amounted to a row of pins, the sons of the wealthy lived on their income the sons of the great, on the reputation their fathers made. Successful men of the day were of humble origin, and why? "Because they were thrown on their own resources in early age and not handicapped by inheritance."

"At the present time two thirds of our asylums are filled with mental and physical wrecks through their own sins."

He warned his audience against what he described as the very devil incarnate.

Parents should talk to their children and advise them. They should instill into the youthful mind the highest conception of manhood, and endeavor to get them to scorn everything that was uncleanly and unmanly.

Tobacco, and the use of strong drink excited a man's passions.

The third was licentiousness, which every one present knew meant adultery and fornication.

This was not only sin against oneself, but was also a sin against the sex of ones mother, against God against prosperity, and against the only sacred science, there is, namely, the science of generation. Some people were guilty in order to be considered smart by their evil associates, others by curiosity. Still more from misconception. The seducer, he described, as worse than a murderer.

SOME GOOD ADVICE ABOUT GETTING MARRIED

The Central Methodist church last evening was crowded to hear Messrs Crossley and Hunter continue their revivalistic campaign.

Mr. Hunter chose his text from the XIV chapter Luke 16th and following verses.

He said he had strong likes and dislikes but people were beginning to understand him better.

He would not wish a man whom he disliked to have a corner lot in heaven instead of him.

Nor would he like such a one to buy the lot next to him on earth.

"God pity the man who wanted a filer or one who expects you to follow round like a poodle dog," Mr. Hunter said, "upright God fearing woman and she will lead you onward and upward."

Mr. Crossley before commencing his address sang a solo, "The Pearly Gates" and said his worst wish was that every one present should have a speedy entrance through them.

He chose his text from Acts III, 19 "Repent ye therefore and be converted that your sins be blotted out."

If you are not fitted for heaven you are not fitted for Calgary or any place inhabited by human people.

The majority of conversions occurred under the age of 20; just as people learn to read, play cricket, swim, etc., early in life more readily than in after years, so if they delayed their chance of being saved grew less with each year.

Mr. Hunter gave the usual invitation for those who were converted to stand up and come forward to the rails.

A great many people stayed to the after meeting.

THE PRESENCE OF THE ANGELS

Interesting Address by Rev. Mr. Hunter Yesterday Morning

Rev. Mr. Hunter preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. His address was an interesting one, showing that he is an able preacher as well as a strong and powerful exhorter.

In his reading Mr. Hunter expressed his belief in an angelic throng in close communion with earth.

"There are angels in this very building. Of that I am positive. We cannot see them for God has placed a veil in front of our faces, for if we could see them we would not remain in Calgary for a single hour. Heaven is here right about us, if we only knew it. I do not believe in spiritualism or spirit wrapping or that kind of a thing, it is absurd but I do believe in a beautiful heavenly throng that encompasses us."

In his sermon he spoke also of death bed repentance. The only time that the bible mentioned deathbed repentance was that of the thief on the cross.

"Do not misunderstand me. I do not say that eleventh hour repentance is impossible, but I do say that I believe that eleventh hour repentance is seldom genuine."

Japanese Hand-Made Linens

We placed an order with a firm in Japan for these goods which were to have been delivered to us early in December for the Christmas trade. Through delays in shipping, however they have only just come to hand. They are not like lots of other goods, entirely and solely got up for Christmas selling, but are good serviceable lines that are useful at all times, but, as the quantity is somewhat large, we want to make a quick sale, and have accordingly priced them in such a way that you will readily see that the values are away higher than the prices.
