Wage-Workers' Symposium

A New Era Coming
We have reached a time in the world's affairs when intelligent men are ignoring the principles of right and justice and are inclined to rest on brute force, but a new force is coming into the world to bring about universal peace when the organized workers of the world decide that they will no longer go out to shoot down their fellow workmen to satisfy the greed and ambition of rulers.—John W. Foster.

To Abolish Capital
The taking away of jobs they always thought belonged to them has opened the eyes of some fifteen hundred or two thousand Black Hills workers during the past five months and seventy-five per cent. of these people are now willing to admit that capitalism is an evil that must be abolished before we can have a real republic. Some of these men will never vote again in the Black Hills, but some other section will get the benefit of the education that has been given them by the Black Hills mining companies. And some of those who take their places will, in time, also become educated. This is the way the Socialist movement grows and by discharging socialists and setting them adrift the capitalist bosses but spread the virus over a greater territory.—Lead Register.

Should Demand Union Label
"Too many union men and women are disposed to regard the duty of demanding the union label as a general proposition having no immediate or direct bearing upon standing in labor movement. This is a serious mistake. The fact is that the demand for the union label is one of the very first and most imperative obligations upon the trade unionist, equally at least with the duty of paying dues, attending meetings and observing shop rules. The fact that the former duty is more easy of evasion than the latter increases the obligation rather than lessens it. The strength of a given union is proportioned to the degree of cooperation between the unions. The union label is the guide to co-operation, the means by which the members of the organization may identify the products of other organizations."—Coast's Seamen's Journal.

Should Go to the Bottom
What would be the consensus of opinion regarding the efforts of an individual who claims that he would exterminate mosquitoes by capturing them in a net whilst completely ignoring the sources of propagation? We feel safe in stating that it would be that he was as illogical as Don Quixote tilting at the windmill. This inconsistency has its parallel in the actions of those people no matter how well meaning their intentions, who attempt to accomplish such reforms as "the white slave traffic," "the white plague," "the drink problem," and the hundred and one social pests infesting the body politic while remaining totally oblivious to the underlying causes. The expenditure of energy, although it may effect slight relief, is as equally transitory as the efforts of the mosquito netter in so far as effecting a remedy is concerned.—Ferne Ledger.

The United Garment Workers
If the United Garment Workers of America continue absorbing other organizations, and if the proposed federation of the garment workers and journeymen tailors materialize, the organization will shortly be one of the largest in the A.F. of L. says P. Obermeyer in the Hamilton Herald. At the request of the A.F. of L. the garment workers' general executive board is now considering a proposition to take in all of the suspended workers' unions now affiliated with the federation as federal unions. From appearances the garment workers' board is in favor of the project. This will mean another three thousand members added to the U.G.W. of A. The suspender makers have about twenty local unions, the most important being in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, Minneapolis and Syracuse. Most of these now use the regular A. F. of L. label, but if transferred to the garment workers will use a special garment workers' label.

To place economic power over woman, in the hands of any man is wrong. Whether managers be virtuous or vicious, the industrial system which places power over the fortunes of a woman in the hands of any man, is a vicious form of organization. We owe it to womanhood to abolish such industrial autocracy.—The Cypriote.

A Barbers' union has been organized at Cranbrook, B.C.

Halifax, N.S., carpenters have received an increase in their scale without any trouble ensuing.

Cranbrook, B.C., corporation laborers are striking for an advance of 25 cents per diem. They demand $2.75 for a ten hour day.

About 400 painters have joined the Toronto local since the union members went on strike last week to enforce a 15 cent an hour rate of wages.

Winnipeg painters have succeeded in reaching agreements with most of their employers, and the strike for a 40 cent hour rate is practically won.

Canadian Frenchmen are being imported by British Columbia mill owners near New Westminster to replace the Hindus imported some two years ago.

A vote in time saves a lot of money, worry and discomfiture to wage-workers pending the next election. Less winning and more voting is what is needed.

Western employers are finding that the men they induce to go there to break strikes one year are the men who strike for better conditions the next.—P. Obermeyer.

The miners' monthly payroll in the Crow's Nest Pass coal fields for April amounted to $172,000. The price of the product of the coal-diggers for the month is not given.

May Day was fittingly celebrated in Vancouver and other western towns. There will be no more September Labor Day parades in this territory; the day will be spent in picnicking and speech-making.

G. E. B. Member Magnus Sinclair of the Street Railway Employees' union reports the schedule controversy between Division 107, Hamilton, Ont., and the employing company as having been agreeably adjusted.

The San Francisco Clarion announces that after years of struggle it has reached a paying basis. The Clarion is to be congratulated. The unions subscribe for it as bibles, paying 6 2-3 cents a month per member.

Patrick Martin Draper, secretary-treasurer of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, has again been elected by acclamation as a delegate to the Port William session of the Congress by the Ottawa Typographical union.

The only concessions ever granted telegraphers have been wrung from their employers through organization. Organization is the only method through which we may hope to keep what we have and obtain more.—Telegraphers' Journal.

A remarkable percentage of the inmates of the asylum for the insane at New Westminster, B.C., were loggers in camps along the Pacific coast. The isolated life and utter destruction of home life is the cause attributed by physicians who have made a study of the phenomena.

The national executive of the Socialist Party of Canada has under consideration the holding of a federal convention at Winnipeg in 1911. Practically every province in the Dominion has now a provincial executive and organization, and the time for a general convention seems almost at hand.

Cotton's Weekly asks: "What Canadian constituency will be known in history as having returned the first revolutionary Socialist to the House of Parliament?" Why, Nanaimo, Vancouver Island, of course, next election.

and J. H. Hawthornthwaite, a local representative.

True to the militant spirit of Western Canada, another trade union, the Insulars of Nanaimo, B.C., has been organized on the island. The vice have some on strike, claiming conditions and more money, stating enough "white" men were working the places of the natives.

As a result of the agreement between Montreal Longshoremen and the Shipping Federation, the dock future will be 30 to 35 cents an hour and the bonus system, which has been the cause of much strife, will be abolished. Ten hours will constitute a day's work and double time will be paid for Sunday work.

The Carling Brewing and Malting company of London, Ont., has signed a contract with the United Brewery Workers for two years, with an increase in wages and reduction in working time. Organizer M. Kape put the contract through. The international union has been working two years to secure recognition.

Trade unionism is succeeding in the Leithridge district. The local of local of Carpenters at Diamond City, Alta., Organizer C. J. Harding got 17 men the other day to sign up for a charter from the International Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. The Laundry Workers of the Leithridge steam laundry were also organized by J. M. Ritchie last Monday night.
