

WESTERN ONTARIO.

ELGIN.

The friends of A. F. Ames, late mathematical master of the Collegiate Institute, will be pleased to hear that his services as principal of the Riverside grammar school, Chicago, have been appreciated by increasing his salary to $1,750 a year.

Thomas Reilly, an Indian, is wanted for the abduction of two Indian boys from the Muncey reserve, and C. C. Wilson is on his trail.

John Lee, the missing St. Thomas alderman, was in Windsor last Friday, and is expected home soon to make an assignment.

Charles Neer, Union, died June 6, aged 55. He formerly resided at Harrisburg.

The St. Thomas Liberal Club has leased and comfortably furnished four rooms, in which the daily papers will be on file. The committee in charge is Hugh Williams (chairman), M. S. Carl (secretary), A. S. Smith, C. W. Regan, E. S. Miller and A. W. Campbell.

Mrs. Hannah McGinn, an old resident of St. Thomas, died on Saturday, aged 71. She was born in Elgin 74 years ago Monday.

Alfred Ellerby, of St. Thomas, an old-time conductor on the Michigan Central Railroad, has been in Vancouver, B. C., for several days. Mr. Ellerby is quite enthusiastic over the possibilities of that city.

James Herenden has purchased the Mero House, Aylmer, for $5,000.

A horse belonging to K. Cassidy slid down the due of the dam at the old mill at St. Thomas, a distance of sixteen feet. In order to get him out part of the timbers had to be cut away, but he was rescued without being injured.

Court Elgin, I. O. Foresters, will have a church parade in Aylmer on Sunday.

Aylmer has already some good strawberries of this season's growth.

Rev. W. A. Cook, Dorchester, and Miss Annie McMaster, Aylmer, are married.

Rev. John Laing, D.D., Dundas, assisted by Rev. D. Campbell, Pinkerton, and Rev. D. L. Dwan, B.A., Ailsa Craig, performed the ceremony.

In Malahide, May 24, the wife of John Carter, of twin sons.

Sir James Grant, who was one of the physicians in attendance upon Sir John A. Macdonald, is a brother of Mrs. Arch. Stewart, who was, more than twenty years ago, a resident of Wallaceburg, and whose husband ministered in the Presbyterian churches at that village and Lalgie.

J. A. Shannon, D.D.S., and Miss Nellie Lugsden, Dutton, are married.

W. H. Nelson, Dutton, will not remove to St. Thomas at present, owing to the license commissioners refusing to transfer the license of the Balmoral Hotel at St. Thomas from W. H. Branton to him.

Some St. Thomas people, after winning and dining with a couple of supposed English gentlemen, a gentleman and a sick wife, are now whitening because they were adventurous and walked off with a pocket full of cash after having had a gloriously good time there. Next!

Grant, Morris, Harrow, and Miss R. Evans, Morris, are married.

Thirty delegates will be represented by about 150 delegates at the Western Baptist Association at Colchester on June 11, 12 and 13.

Nineteen years ago this spring Wm. Kettle, now of Leamington, while working out in Minnesota saved the life of an English player, W. A. Whipple, from drowning, when the latter fell off a ferry. A few weeks ago Whipple died and Mr. Kettle is $6,000 better off by his will.

Charles Fellows, one of the oldest residents of Sandwich, died on Sunday at the ripe age of 91. He has lived in the county for many years and was an intimate friend of Col. Rankin.

A new French paper is to be started in Sarnia in the interests of J. C. Patterson, ex-M.P. Two thousand five hundred dollars of the stock has been subscribed.

H. Sharman, nephew of James Sharman, Stratford, has just concluded a three-year term at the Guelph Agricultural College and received his degree of B. S. A. from Toronto University, which the college is affiliated. He leaves in a few days for Louisiana, where he has received the appointment of chemist in the Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge, the capital of the State.

Some parties in Perth have been receiving "green goods" circulated from New York.

H. S. A. Moore and L. Smith, who had a dispute over cards, the former being assaulted and injured, have settled their grievance out of court, Smith paying Moore $250 as compensation for his injuries.

F. S. Miller, a Stratford lumber dealer, has levanted, leaving private banker Kane, of Gorrie, with a shortage of $265. His whereabouts are discovered, Miller will be extradited.

A chicken having four legs and four wings was hatched last week by a Leghorn hen owned by F. Smith, Stratford.

Willie Goodfellow, who fell from the C. P. R. bridge at Galt while en route to school, has died from the effects of his injuries.

Galt medics have resolved not to give their services hereafter to societies at $1 per year per member, and there is a big row in consequence. The doctors want $2 a year.

The following local manufacturers have been awarded medals in London: Ayr American Plow Company, silver medal; Brethaupt Leather Company, Berlin, silver medal; James Goldie, Guelph, gold medal; Told Milling Company, Galt, gold medal; Victoria Wheel Company, Galt, wheel spokes, etc., gold medal; Watson and Malcolm, Galt and Kincardine, furniture, gold medal.

At attempt to complete the organization of a ladies' baseball club in Ayr has been abandoned. The cause of this was inability of the promoters to agree on several vital points, viz., the width of the bats, whether aprons should be used or not, the number of bounces the ball might take, and when caught still the striker.

Another shipment of fourteen carloads of cattle was made the other day at Ayr.

Thos. Dickie, son of the late Jas. Dickie, Fuslinch, has returned from Australia. He spent some four years in that country, and now expects to settle down at home.

John Boulton, an old resident of Ayr, is dead, aged 66.

Beecham's Pills cure Bilious and Nervous Ills.

Frequent and little eating make a man fat. The old woman who "lives in a shoe" evidently had neighbors who kept her.

Mrs. Woodliffe's New Business.

The many friends of Mrs. Woodliffe, who for many years successfully conducted a fruit, flower and confectionery store on Dundas street, will be pleased to learn that she has gone into business once more—this time dealing in fancy goods. Her store is nearly opposite the old stand, and is a bright and attractive affair.

Mrs. Woodliffe's niece will carry on a business similar to the one formerly followed by her aunt, the stores being next door to each other. The stock of both stores is now under inspection.

Dr. Dray, of Chatham, has been asked by the president to deliver the address on medicine before the Dominion Medical Association, which meets in Montreal on Sept. 16, 17 and 18 next, and has consented to do so.

Warden Gillard's 7-year-old son died in Wallaceburg on Sunday.

A $10 gold piece was dropped into the river the other day at Wallaceburg by a man who was making change at a boat.

The Chatham Planet will soon be issued as a daily.

Dresden, Germany will have a Dominion Day excursion to Walpole Island and Marine City.

J. K. McGillevray, M.A., at one time principal of the public school at Ridge town, was ordained a minister of the Presbyterian Church at Port Elgin a few days ago. He goes to the Gore Day mission field. Mr. Bannerman, another ex-principal, is studying at Princeton.

The first recently added to the service on the Erie and Huron has been taken off, as it was not found to pay.

The directors of the Blenheim Agricultural Society have secured a grant of $240 from the Township Council to aid in securing the driving park.

A big flow of gas has been struck near Hamilton on the farm of Wm. Muckle, and the people are ecstatic.

E. B. Toke, Blenheim, has a silly foal named May 23, 1891, sired by Shylcock out of a Argowman mare, which he has sold to Joseph Phillips, Essex, for $200, to be taken at weaning.

Judge Woods has received orders to begin the revision of the voters' list for Kent, and the work will be proceeded with as soon as practicable. W. W. Mitchell will perform the duties of assistant.

The Rev. Mr. Russell, late pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Thamesville, was recently presented by the members of his congregation at Florence with a beautiful book case (revolving) and writing desk combined.

MIDLESEX.

Rev. Mr. Henderson, Appleton, will officiate in the Presbyterian Church, Wardville, next Sunday.

The Wardville brass band turned out on Saturday evening and played some fine selections.

Flus. English has returned to Wardville from a protracted visit to Waterdown, Hamilton, Toronto and Niagara Falls. He reports his health much improved.

Miss Maud Kinderger had one of her toes amputated the other day by local physicians.

The last open meeting of this season of the Young People's Society of the Methodist Church at Wardville was held in the hall of the church on Tuesday evening and was largely attended, the church being well filled. D. Francis, B.A., in the chair. The programme presented was an unusually good one.

Miss Angelina Attwood, Vanneck, is now engaged as nurse at the Toronto General Hospital, where there are numerous cases of typhoid and diphtheria at present. She is greatly interested in the work, although it entails a very large amount of labor as well as attention and sympathetic care.

The C. T. R. issues return excursion tickets for Stratford on Wednesdays to Sarnia from 75 cents, and on Thursdays to Port Stanley for the same money.

Wm. Geddes, of Geddes Bros., Stratford, goes to England on June 15.

PERTH.

The Stratford Times issues a semi-weekly edition.

The G. T. R. issues return excursion tickets from Stratford to Winton on Saturdays for $2, to Sarnia on Wednesdays for $1.25, to Port Stanley on Wednesdays for $1, and to Goderich and Kincardine on Saturdays for $1.

Suaturol lately opened a fine public hospital now some citizens propose to open a private one.

The customs receipts in Stratford for May were: Free goods admitted, $4,046; value of dutiable goods, $42,233; duty collected, $5,728.29.

H. Sharman, nephew of James Sharman, Stratford, has just concluded a three-year term at the Guelph Agricultural College and received his degree of B. S. A. from Toronto University, which the college is affiliated. He leaves in a few days for Louisiana, where he has received the appointment of chemist in the Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge, the capital of the State.

Some parties in Perth have been receiving "green goods" circulated from New York.

H. S. A. Moore and L. Smith, who had a dispute over cards, the former being assaulted and injured, have settled their grievance out of court, Smith paying Moore $250 as compensation for his injuries.

F. S. Miller, a Stratford lumber dealer, has levanted, leaving private banker Kane, of Gorrie, with a shortage of $265. His whereabouts are discovered, Miller will be extradited.

A chicken having four legs and four wings was hatched last week by a Leghorn hen owned by F. Smith, Stratford.

Willie Goodfellow, who fell from the C. P. R. bridge at Galt while en route to school, has died from the effects of his injuries.

Galt medics have resolved not to give their services hereafter to societies at $1 per year per member, and there is a big row in consequence. The doctors want $2 a year.

The following local manufacturers have been awarded medals in London: Ayr American Plow Company, silver medal; Brethaupt Leather Company, Berlin, silver medal; James Goldie, Guelph, gold medal; Told Milling Company, Galt, gold medal; Victoria Wheel Company, Galt, wheel spokes, etc., gold medal; Watson and Malcolm, Galt and Kincardine, furniture, gold medal.

At attempt to complete the organization of a ladies' baseball club in Ayr has been abandoned. The cause of this was inability of the promoters to agree on several vital points, viz., the width of the bats, whether aprons should be used or not, the number of bounces the ball might take, and when caught still the striker.

Another shipment of fourteen carloads of cattle was made the other day at Ayr.

Thos. Dickie, son of the late Jas. Dickie, Fuslinch, has returned from Australia. He spent some four years in that country, and now expects to settle down at home.

John Boulton, an old resident of Ayr, is dead, aged 66.

Beecham's Pills cure Bilious and Nervous Ills.

Frequent and little eating make a man fat. The old woman who "lives in a shoe" evidently had neighbors who kept her.

Mrs. Woodliffe's New Business.

The many friends of Mrs. Woodliffe, who for many years successfully conducted a fruit, flower and confectionery store on Dundas street, will be pleased to learn that she has gone into business once more—this time dealing in fancy goods. Her store is nearly opposite the old stand, and is a bright and attractive affair.

Mrs. Woodliffe's niece will carry on a business similar to the one formerly followed by her aunt, the stores being next door to each other. The stock of both stores is now under inspection.

Dr. Dray, of Chatham, has been asked by the president to deliver the address on medicine before the Dominion Medical Association, which meets in Montreal on Sept. 16, 17 and 18 next, and has consented to do so.

Warden Gillard's 7-year-old son died in Wallaceburg on Sunday.

A $10 gold piece was dropped into the river the other day at Wallaceburg by a man who was making change at a boat.

The Chatham Planet will soon be issued as a daily.

Dresden, Germany will have a Dominion Day excursion to Walpole Island and Marine City.

J. K. McGillevray, M.A., at one time principal of the public school at Ridge town, was ordained a minister of the Presbyterian Church at Port Elgin a few days ago. He goes to the Gore Day mission field. Mr. Bannerman, another ex-principal, is studying at Princeton.

The first recently added to the service on the Erie and Huron has been taken off, as it was not found to pay.

The directors of the Blenheim Agricultural Society have secured a grant of $240 from the Township Council to aid in securing the driving park.

A big flow of gas has been struck near Hamilton on the farm of Wm. Muckle, and the people are ecstatic.

E. B. Toke, Blenheim, has a silly foal named May 23, 1891, sired by Shylcock out of a Argowman mare, which he has sold to Joseph Phillips, Essex, for $200, to be taken at weaning.

Judge Woods has received orders to begin the revision of the voters' list for Kent, and the work will be proceeded with as soon as practicable. W. W. Mitchell will perform the duties of assistant.

The Rev. Mr. Russell, late pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Thamesville, was recently presented by the members of his congregation at Florence with a beautiful book case (revolving) and writing desk combined.

MIDLESEX.

Rev. Mr. Henderson, Appleton, will officiate in the Presbyterian Church, Wardville, next Sunday.

The Wardville brass band turned out on Saturday evening and played some fine selections.

Flus. English has returned to Wardville from a protracted visit to Waterdown, Hamilton, Toronto and Niagara Falls. He reports his health much improved.

Miss Maud Kinderger had one of her toes amputated the other day by local physicians.

The last open meeting of this season of the Young People's Society of the Methodist Church at Wardville was held in the hall of the church on Tuesday evening and was largely attended, the church being well filled. D. Francis, B.A., in the chair. The programme presented was an unusually good one.

Miss Angelina Attwood, Vanneck, is now engaged as nurse at the Toronto General Hospital, where there are numerous cases of typhoid and diphtheria at present. She is greatly interested in the work, although it entails a very large amount of labor as well as attention and sympathetic care.

The C. T. R. issues return excursion tickets for Stratford on Wednesdays to Sarnia from 75 cents, and on Thursdays to Port Stanley for the same money.

Wm. Geddes, of Geddes Bros., Stratford, goes to England on June 15.

PERTH.

The Stratford Times issues a semi-weekly edition.

The G. T. R. issues return excursion tickets from Stratford to Winton on Saturdays for $2, to Sarnia on Wednesdays for $1.25, to Port Stanley on Wednesdays for $1, and to Goderich and Kincardine on Saturdays for $1.

Suaturol lately opened a fine public hospital now some citizens propose to open a private one.

The customs receipts in Stratford for May were: Free goods admitted, $4,046; value of dutiable goods, $42,233; duty collected, $5,728.29.

H. Sharman, nephew of James Sharman, Stratford, has just concluded a three-year term at the Guelph Agricultural College and received his degree of B. S. A. from Toronto University, which the college is affiliated. He leaves in a few days for Louisiana, where he has received the appointment of chemist in the Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge, the capital of the State.

Some parties in Perth have been receiving "green goods" circulated from New York.

H. S. A. Moore and L. Smith, who had a dispute over cards, the former being assaulted and injured, have settled their grievance out of court, Smith paying Moore $250 as compensation for his injuries.

F. S. Miller, a Stratford lumber dealer, has levanted, leaving private banker Kane, of Gorrie, with a shortage of $265. His whereabouts are discovered, Miller will be extradited.

A chicken having four legs and four wings was hatched last week by a Leghorn hen owned by F. Smith, Stratford.

Willie Goodfellow, who fell from the C. P. R. bridge at Galt while en route to school, has died from the effects of his injuries.

Galt medics have resolved not to give their services hereafter to societies at $1 per year per member, and there is a big row in consequence. The doctors want $2 a year.

The following local manufacturers have been awarded medals in London: Ayr American Plow Company, silver medal; Brethaupt Leather Company, Berlin, silver medal; James Goldie, Guelph, gold medal; Told Milling Company, Galt, gold medal; Victoria Wheel Company, Galt, wheel spokes, etc., gold medal; Watson and Malcolm, Galt and Kincardine, furniture, gold medal.

At attempt to complete the organization of a ladies' baseball club in Ayr has been abandoned. The cause of this was inability of the promoters to agree on several vital points, viz., the width of the bats, whether aprons should be used or not, the number of bounces the ball might take, and when caught still the striker.

Another shipment of fourteen carloads of cattle was made the other day at Ayr.

Thos. Dickie, son of the late Jas. Dickie, Fuslinch, has returned from Australia. He spent some four years in that country, and now expects to settle down at home.

John Boulton, an old resident of Ayr, is dead, aged 66.

Beecham's Pills cure Bilious and Nervous Ills.

Frequent and little eating make a man fat. The old woman who "lives in a shoe" evidently had neighbors who kept her.

Mrs. Woodliffe's New Business.

The many friends of Mrs. Woodliffe, who for many years successfully conducted a fruit, flower and confectionery store on Dundas street, will be pleased to learn that she has gone into business once more—this time dealing in fancy goods. Her store is nearly opposite the old stand, and is a bright and attractive affair.

Mrs. Woodliffe's niece will carry on a business similar to the one formerly followed by her aunt, the stores being next door to each other. The stock of both stores is now under inspection.

Dr. Dray, of Chatham, has been asked by the president to deliver the address on medicine before the Dominion Medical Association, which meets in Montreal on Sept. 16, 17 and 18 next, and has consented to do so.

Warden Gillard's 7-year-old son died in Wallaceburg on Sunday.

A $10 gold piece was dropped into the river the other day at Wallaceburg by a man who was making change at a boat.

The Chatham Planet will soon be issued as a daily.

Dresden, Germany will have a Dominion Day excursion to Walpole Island and Marine City.

J. K. McGillevray, M.A., at one time principal of the public school at Ridge town, was ordained a minister of the Presbyterian Church at Port Elgin a few days ago. He goes to the Gore Day mission field. Mr. Bannerman, another ex-principal, is studying at Princeton.

The first recently added to the service on the Erie and Huron has been taken off, as it was not found to pay.

The directors of the Blenheim Agricultural Society have secured a grant of $240 from the Township Council to aid in securing the driving park.

A big flow of gas has been struck near Hamilton on the farm of Wm. Muckle, and the people are ecstatic.

E. B. Toke, Blenheim, has a silly foal named May 23, 1891, sired by Shylcock out of a Argowman mare, which he has sold to Joseph Phillips, Essex, for $200, to be taken at weaning.

Judge Woods has received orders to begin the revision of the voters' list for Kent, and the work will be proceeded with as soon as practicable. W. W. Mitchell will perform the duties of assistant.

The Rev. Mr. Russell, late pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Thamesville, was recently presented by the members of his congregation at Florence with a beautiful book case (revolving) and writing desk combined.

MIDLESEX.

Rev. Mr. Henderson, Appleton, will officiate in the Presbyterian Church, Wardville, next Sunday.

The Wardville brass band turned out on Saturday evening and played some fine selections.

Flus. English has returned to Wardville from a protracted visit to Waterdown, Hamilton, Toronto and Niagara Falls. He reports his health much improved.

Miss Maud Kinderger had one of her toes amputated the other day by local physicians.

The last open meeting of this season of the Young People's Society of the Methodist Church at Wardville was held in the hall of the church on Tuesday evening and was largely attended, the church being well filled. D. Francis, B.A., in the chair. The programme presented was an unusually good one.

Miss Angelina Attwood, Vanneck, is now engaged as nurse at the Toronto General Hospital, where there are numerous cases of typhoid and diphtheria at present. She is greatly interested in the work, although it entails a very large amount of labor as well as attention and sympathetic care.

The C. T. R. issues return excursion tickets for Stratford on Wednesdays to Sarnia from 75 cents, and on Thursdays to Port Stanley for the same money.

Wm. Geddes, of Geddes Bros., Stratford, goes to England on June 15.

PERTH.

The Stratford Times issues a semi-weekly edition.

The G. T. R. issues return excursion tickets from Stratford to Winton on Saturdays for $2, to Sarnia on Wednesdays for $1.25, to Port Stanley on Wednesdays for $1, and to Goderich and Kincardine on Saturdays for $1.

Suaturol lately opened a fine public hospital now some citizens propose to open a private one.

The customs receipts in Stratford for May were: Free goods admitted, $4,046; value of dutiable goods, $42,233; duty collected, $5,728.29.

H. Sharman, nephew of James Sharman, Stratford, has just concluded a three-year term at the Guelph Agricultural College and received his degree of B. S. A. from Toronto University, which the college is affiliated. He leaves in a few days for Louisiana, where he has received the appointment of chemist in the Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge, the capital of the State.

Some parties in Perth have been receiving "green goods" circulated from New York.

H. S. A. Moore and L. Smith, who had a dispute over cards, the former being assaulted and injured, have settled their grievance out of court, Smith paying Moore $250 as compensation for his injuries.

F. S. Miller, a Stratford lumber dealer, has levanted, leaving private banker Kane, of Gorrie, with a shortage of $265. His whereabouts are discovered, Miller will be extradited.

A chicken having four legs and four wings was hatched last week by a Leghorn hen owned by F. Smith, Stratford.

Willie Goodfellow, who fell from the C. P. R. bridge at Galt while en route to school, has died from the effects of his injuries.

Galt medics have resolved not to give their services hereafter to societies at $1 per year per member, and there is a big row in consequence. The doctors want $2 a year.

The following local manufacturers have been awarded medals in London: Ayr American Plow Company, silver medal; Brethaupt Leather Company, Berlin, silver medal; James Goldie, Guelph, gold medal; Told Milling Company, Galt, gold medal; Victoria Wheel Company, Galt, wheel spokes, etc., gold medal; Watson and Malcolm, Galt and Kincardine, furniture, gold medal.

At attempt to complete the organization of a ladies' baseball club in Ayr has been abandoned. The cause of this was inability of the promoters to agree on several vital points, viz., the width of the bats, whether aprons should be used or not, the number of bounces the ball might take, and when caught still the striker.

Another shipment of fourteen carloads of cattle was made the other day at Ayr.

Thos. Dickie, son of the late Jas. Dickie, Fuslinch, has returned from Australia. He spent some four years in that country, and now expects to settle down at home.

John Boulton, an old resident of Ayr, is dead, aged 66.

Beecham's Pills cure Bilious and Nervous Ills.

Frequent and little eating make a man fat. The old woman who "lives in a shoe" evidently had neighbors who kept her.

Mrs. Woodliffe's New Business.

The many friends of Mrs. Woodliffe, who for many years successfully conducted a fruit, flower and confectionery store on Dundas street, will be pleased to learn that she has gone into business once more—this time dealing in fancy goods. Her store is nearly opposite the old stand, and is a bright and attractive affair.