THE SHADOW OF FEAR

Hanging Over the Castellane-Gould Marriage.

Detectives Will Infest the House on the Wedding Day-Threatening

Letters Received.

NEW YORK, March 2 .- Mr. and Mrs. George Gould gave at their palatial residence last night the much talked of event -the State dinner. It was designed for the purpose of formally introducing to a select few of their New York friends the Marquis and Marquise De Castellane. The dinner was served by Sherry and was essentially a Lenten repast. The floral decorations were American Beauty roses, the favorite flower of Mrs. George Gould, the hostess. Mrs. Gould wore a new Worth gown, especially imported for this occasion. Miss Anna Gould will give a bridesmalds' uncheon today at which only the young ladies who are to officiate in that capacity at the wedding will be present. There will be but one marriage ceremony and that will be performed by Archbishop Corrigan. On the day of the wedding the Gould residence will be literally infested with detectives. No newspaper reporters will be admitted. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gould have for several weeks past been in receipt of numerous threatening letters. One of these missives promises that the house and all its inmates shall be blown up with gunpowder during the ceremony on Monday.

New beginners should use half the quantity of Dr. Price's to do the same work as of any other baking powder.

It's absolutely pure. NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN. Pine-Malt is All the Talk Hereabout. "What shall I take to break up this bad cold?" Answer-Pine-Malt, "But it has gone down to my lungs and hangs on!" Then get a bottle of Pine-Malt and Hypophosphites instead. I advise this from personal and family experience. Pine-Malt acts like a charm, allaying cough, curing hoarseness and other symptoms with surprising quickness. It is a great family medicine, safe and pleasant. My faith in Pine-Malt is unbounded. The new medicine is all the talk hereabout. J. G. CAL-DER, pastor, Brooke Baptist Church, Lambton, Ont., Jan. 30, 1895. wt
