Present.

The ratification of the proposed route of the Grand Valley Railroad will come up before the railway committee of the House of Commons in Ottawa today, but Mayor Stevely will not attend, owing to the fact that the JOHN M. MOORE, Engineer and Superrailway company has not furnished the city with a detail plan of the proposed route as agreed upon.

Mayor Stevely was in communica. tion with Mr. J. G. Wallace, of Woodstock, solicitor of the company, and he agreed that the ratification of the route within five miles of the London and Port Stanley Railroad would not be asked for at this time, as the plans were not ready. This section would come up at some time later. As a result City Solicitor Meredith
