New Hay Coming In.

A considerable quantity of new hay is coming in. A dozen loads were brought in this morning, old hay going at $12 to $14 a ton and new hay from $8 to $10. Three loads of oats were snapped up by the grain dealers at $1 23 to $1 26 a

Three loads of wheat have been delivered this week so far at $1 a bushel. None was offered for sale this morning. Very little butter or eggs were sold this morning, the reason being that practically none is being brought in. A higher figure is being asked for butter this week. Dairy pound prints were quoted as high as 25 cents in dairy hall this morning. Bolls are scarch and the wholesale dealers are paying 19 to 20 cents a pound. Crocks are quoted at 18

Eggs at 18 Cents a Dozen.

Eggs are still hovering around the 18 cents mark, wholesale, with little prospect of a change. The retail price is 21 cents a dozen. A fairly large quantity of cherries is being sold on the local market. Quota-tions range all the way from 85 cents to $1 50 a basket. Potatoes were firm at 75 cents a bag retail and 70 cents wholesale. Very little change was apparent in garden produce. Green peas are quoted at 12 to 15 cents a quart. Spring beats are 30 to 40 cents a dozen.

Yacht "Dinah," Owned By P. J. Wati Went Down Off Long Point.

While bringing his yacht Dinah from Hamilton to Port Stanley late on Monday night, Mr. P. J. Watt and his crew, consisting of his son Bob, Mr. Alex. Harvey, and a young lad named Harry Dowding, had a narrow escape from drowning off the south lighthouse at Long Point. The boat lies in 30 feet of water there, and the crew AT WINNIPEG had to swim for their lives. The story was given in the last edition of yesterday's Advertiser.

Special wire to H. C. Becher gives A strong northeast blow struck the yacht, and she made good time until July 104% near Long Point, when the breeze freshened. Mr. Watt made about, and as he did so, the wind veered, carrying away his sail and rudder.

All drifted at the mercy waves for some hours until about 1 a.m., when the yacht grounded. A big sea was running, but Bob Watts, by some skillful seamanship managed to Enjoyable Outing Held at the take Harry Dowding to shore in safety. He returned for the others, but
