STOCK MARKETS. NEW YORK, Oct. 24—Wall street—The mixed gains and losses shown by the opening prices of stocks failed to throw much light on the trend of speculative sentiment. Of the three most active much light on the trend of speculative sentiment. Of the three most active stocks, United States Steel opened unchanged, Union Pacific down 1½, and Reading up 34. Pullman advanced 1½, and General Electric and Interborough-Metropolitan, preferred, 1. American Car and Great Northern Ore certificaes declined 1. The dealings were in moderate volume only, and the changes generally small.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24—Noon.—Money on call steady, at 3 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 5½ to 6 per cent. Exchanges, $205,230,345; balances, $8,048,288.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Flour—Quiet. Rye—Steady. Barley—Quiet. Wheat—Influenced by liberal world's shipments, easy cables and prospects for a bearish visible supply, wheat was weak this morning, with December under a dollar; December, 99%c to $1 00 11-16c; May, $1 05% to $1 05½. Corn—Futures market was without transactions. Raw sugar—Quiet; Muscovado, 3.35c; centrifugal, 3.55c; molasses sugar, 3.10; refined quiet. Coffee—Spot quiet. Molasses—Quiet. Lead—Quiet. Hops—Steady.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24—Wall street, noon.—The stock market was governed by technical considerations. When prices were bid up, an amount of stock was offered at the higher level, which forced a decline. London was a free seller of stocks, induced by solicitude over money market scarcity. Southern Pacific, St. Paul, Chesapeake and Ohio, United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper, Brooklyn Transit, Consolidated Gas and a number of other stocks declined a point or more. Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis, and Omoha sold at a decline of 10. The tone was heavy and dull at noon. Bonds were steady.

SELECTING A RECTOR FOR CHRIST CHURCH

Committee Will Wait Upon Bishop Williams in Regard to the Matter.

A successor has not yet been named to succeed Pev. R. S. W. Howard, rector of Christ Church, who will leave about the middle of November for Chatham. A committee from the vestry, composed of Messrs. R. McElheran, Andrew McCormick, W. Hayden, W. Robinson, and Chancey Smith, has been named to interview Bishop Williams, and his lordship will be consulted some day this week.

Among the names mentioned are those of Rev. Mr. Gunne, Clinton, and Rural Dean Ardiel, of Owen Sound. It is possible that one of these gentlemen will be appointed.

AUSTRALIA MAKES IMPORTANT REDUCTION

Modification in Tariff Regulations Benefits Canadian Shippers.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Oct. 24.—Australia has made an important modification in the tariff regulations which heretofore added freight charges to the value for purposes of customs valuation. D. M. Ross, Canada's trade commissioner at Melbourne, wires that hereafter in the case of goods from The Canadian Pacific Lake Ontario and east in Canada, the value at the point of origin will be the value in Australia on which duty will be collected, if shipped from Montreal or Quebec.

W. T. Beddoe reports that New Zealand is contemplating the enact-
