BY BUD FISHER HARRISTON MAYOR GIVES CURLERS KEY TO WHOLE TOWN Big Bonspiel Opens Auspiciously-First Round Play Continues. opened here today at 1 o'clock with a record attendance of curlers from all parts of Ontario right on time in the Palace rink, which was beautifully decorated with large flags and signs decorated with large flags and signs of welcome. Mayor Fawcett, in a well-delivered speech welcomed the visitors, and handed them the key of Harriston to go and enjoy the hospitality of the people of this town for which they are so well-known, and extended them all an invitation to return during the week of June 27, 1920, when the old boys' repursor will be formed and several the cold state.

reunion will be on and as more often as possible.

The reception committee was right on deck, meeting every train and extending all the visitors the glad hand. The bonspiel committee also arranged a lunch counter in the rink, where hotdogs, sandwiches, coffee, etc., are being served out free to the curiers. The following is the result of games up to 10 o'clock tonight:

Locals Beat Jacks in Last Period The death of Jim Grannary in Detroit

After Listless Two Periods ing hard all night for a goal without results, realized one in ten minutes. Everyone was going at it tooth and nail to break the tie with most of the play in the Kitchener end. The counter came from a mix that drew Zuber out of his net long enough to let the old disc slide in.

Wheiser scored the last of the visitors' goals in eighteen and a-half minutes. With half a minute to go. Pring made a hard try for a counter, but Zuber was playing a stonewall game in the nets, and it went for neught.

Both teams had been playing a great deal of combination all through the first two periods without results. However, it took shape in the third period for two goals. London started in to play at top speed in this period, and took the disc along the boards and notched the opener on a wicked shot from his wing position in seven minutes. The forwards combined and went down. Logan took the rubber out of the mixup for another counter in nine and s-half. This evened things up, and the fans started to take a little interest and give the boys a little interest and give the boys a little interest and give the boys a CARAVELLA
