Township Council Passes Two Drastic Measures To Prevent Losses.

DISCUSS PETITION

Following claims for $1,200 fro London Township farmers for shee killed by dogs. London townshi council, which met this morning in the office of township clerk, Miss Mary Grant, passed two drastic resolutions, which are hoped will cope successfully with the situation.

The motion of Austin Winters and . K. Scott, "That the council pay H. K. Scott, "That the council pay $10 for each dog to any person catch-ing or killing any dog or dogs which are found pursuing, worrying or wounding any sheep within the township," was carried, as was the mo-tion of Councillors Winter and Dengate, "That owing to the ravages caused by sheep-killing dogs it is quite evident that this council must take some drastic action to enforce the provisions of the dog tax and sheep protection act.
