ONLY AWAITING CANADA'S
Britain and United States to Agree on International Issues
REPORT FROM WA
Ambassador Bryce Ottawa Government Week
Washington, Feb. 8.—British ambassador, has February 16 as the date for Ottawa, where he will meet with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier, and other Dominion ministers. The ambassador is also expected to discuss the treaty between Great Britain and the United States for the various issues between States and Canada.
The matter of the fisheries is not involved in the treaty, as it has already been settled by the Hague tribunal. The important question of a province or a colony being submitted to arbitration is not involved in the treaty. The purpose is to secure Canada's right to navigation on the Great Lakes, navigation rights on the St. Lawrence and other rivers and certain questions.
Many months spent in London by the ambassador and by the British government have resulted in a settlement of the question between the government of Britain and the United States. The treaty only requires the approval of the Canadian government to take effect.
