The Tisonburg Biues and London Aierts ayed baseball in the Forest City last Saturday. Blues scored 4 runs in 6 innings. With two en out in the seventh the Aiertstallied two runs id had the bases full, when Arthurs knocked a men out in the seventh the Alerts tallied two runs and had the bases full, when Arthurs knocked a ball to short. Fred Wood fumbled and threw to second, forcing out the runner from first, according to the decision of Umpire Harris of Tilsonburg. The match was played under the double umpire system. Reid of London was the second official and was calling balls and strikes when the dispute occurred. The Alerts claimed that the man was safe at second, but agreed to continue the game if Harris were ejected. This Tilsonburg refused to do. And London would not continue with the alleged dishonest umpire. There was a deadlock. Tilsonburg claimed the game by 9 to 0, and it is said at that Harris gave this decision. The Blues left the field and Reid gave the game to London 9 to 0. According to the London papers Harris was certainly wrong in his judgment, but as it was a matter of judgment Reid had not the right to alter the decision, and technically the Alerts for feited the game, which was the deciding one of a series of five and advertised to be for the Canadian championship.

UNOCCUPIED BUILDINGS DON'T pay. Owners of rentable property would do better by meeting the market as merchants do—on the basis of supply and demand. It pays best to keep houses occupied, and it pays best to keep them in good healthy order. Agents cannot be expected to offer to decent reliable tenants unhealthy houses. The merchant takes care that his goods are attractive, otherwise he could not get customers—and the landlord should note this. R. J. GRIFFITH & CO., 18 King-street east.
