HOW OLD WAS SHE?

A certain lady, who supposed herself younger than she was, had two ladies of the same type as herself for friends, named the Misses Hills.

BREAKING IT GENTLY.

"Mamma!" cried the little daughter, joyfully, "Oh, mamma, do you know what I'm going to give you for Christmas?"

"Why, no, darling," answered the fond mother. "But if you can't wait tell me now, I'll be just as surprised."

"Well, mamma, I'm going to get you a cut glass salad dish."

"No, you haven't, mamma. You did have one, but I just knocked it off the sideboard and busted it."

SIX SENTENCES IN ONE.

Hetty's uncle, who is a school teacher, met her in the street one beautiful May day and asked her if she was going with the Maying party.

"No, I ain't going," she replied with a courtesy. "There ain't nobody going."

EXPLAINED.

On a hunting expedition the late Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar met a forester whose face looked familiar to him.

"Ah, that accounts for the resemblance," returned the duke, absent-mindedly.

WHAT DID SHE MEAN?

"They were discussing private theatricals," says "London Opinion," and the young man remarked that he never enjoyed taking part in such entertainments.

"I always think I am making such a fool of myself," he concluded. "Oh, everyone thinks that," she responded.

SPECULATION AND GAMBLING.

"Congratulations, I hear you have been speculating successfully."

"No, I lost money."

"Well, you ought to know better than to gamble."

Rebuked—"What dirty hands you have, Johnnie!" said his teacher.

"I wouldn't say nothin'," replied Johnnie. "I'd be too polite."

HOPEFUL OF RECIPROCITY.

Ottawa, April 2.—Though nothing in the nature of a definite agreement has so far been arrived at, it is semi-officially stated that the reciprocity conference between the West Indian delegation and Hon. Messrs. Foster, White and Reid, gives every promise of a successful outcome.

TRIED EVERYTHING WITHOUT RELIEF

Until I took "Fruit-a-lives"

SARINIA, ONT., Feb. 5th, 1910. "I have been a sufferer for the past 25 years with Constipation, Indigestion and Catarrh of the Stomach. I tried many remedies and many doctors but derived no benefit whatever."

"Fruit-a-lives" is the only natural cure for Constipation and Stomach Trouble, because it is the only medicine in the world that is made of fruit juices and valuable tonics.

Chances for Skilled Men

Outlook for Building in the Province is Good Says Mr. Curry.

A. S. Curry, manager of the Rhodes Curry Company at Amherst, N.S., arrived here yesterday morning on a business trip to the Sydney branch.

Mr. Curry says that business is quiet at present, though the prospects are bright for a busy year.

He has many large contracts for work in various sections of the province, and the manufacturers generally are kept pretty busy in the provincial towns.

Mr. Curry anticipates some difficulty in securing skilled labor this year, and says they have already experienced it.

The prices will be much higher this year he believes as a result of the scarcity of labor, as the employers will have to get bigger prices for their contracts, owing to the high wage they will be required to pay their men.

Mr. Curry is here to look over the property of the local branch and get things in shape for the summer's work.—Sydney Record.

Mr. Hanley

Mt. Hanley, April 9th.—Rev. C. G. Blakney will preach here on Sunday April 21st at 11 o'clock.

Our community was saddened last week by the death of Mrs. Eliza Brown, age seventy-two, after an illness of over three months.

Much sympathy is felt for her son, Frank, who is left alone.

Mrs. Donald Craig, of Boston, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zeb. Elliott.

Mr. James Parks from Lynn, Mass. is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Mosher for an indefinite time.

HOPEFUL OF RECIPROCITY. WITH WEST INDIES.

OTTAWA, APRIL 2.—THOUGH NOTHING IN THE NATURE OF A DEFINITE AGREEMENT HAS SO FAR BEEN ARRIVED AT, IT IS SEMI-OFFICIALLY STATED THAT THE RECIPROCITY CONFERENCE BETWEEN THE WEST INDIAN DELEGATION AND HON. MESSRS. FOSTER, WHITE AND REID, GIVES EVERY PROMISE OF A SUCCESSFUL OUTCOME.

DEFIES THE BLOWPIPE.

New Material For Safes That Proves Invulnerable.

An experiment of interest to safe manufacturers recently took place at Birmingham, England. It was a test of a material designed to make it impossible for the oxy-acetylene blowpipe to be successfully used by burglars for opening safes.

A safe door section had been built up of two sheets of half inch steel, with a layer of this resisting material between. A drill was first employed, but while it easily bit its way through the outer case of steel it failed to make any impression on the inner filling, and when the drill was withdrawn after five minutes' application all the edge had gone from it.

Time after time it was repeated, but after a second or two's application it was put out of action. The material, in fact, proved absolutely invulnerable, and when the blowpipe was examined the cone was found to have been completely burned away.

When the blowpipe was withdrawn the sign of its application was a slight unevenness on the surface. A similar application would have been to make a cut of at least a foot in steel three inches thick.

SMOKE BURNING FORGE.

Device That Provides a Better Utilization of Coal.

Coal smoke is nothing else than unburned carbon. When great clouds of smoke go up from a forge heat is wasted, writes a correspondent of Popular Mechanics.

Using a common forge with hood attached, I connected at D a tin pipe of the same size as the opening into the suction side of the blower, as shown at C.

FORGE THAT BURNS SMOKE.

The same size as the opening into the suction side of the blower, as shown at C. When the blower is in use the smoke that rises from the fire passes in the direction of the arrows back, through the blower and up to the fire without escaping into the open.

Traveling Telephones. The military authorities in India have made use from time to time of a form of movable telephone which can be employed with great facility in the field.

Sharpening Razor Blades. Safety razor blades, says Popular Mechanics, can be sharpened by immersing them in a solution of one part, by weight, of muriatic acid and twenty parts of water for thirty minutes, then removing them and honing each one to a polish.

Cheap Electric Railways. Taking all items into consideration, the saving of the electric locomotive over steam working is at least equal to 25 per cent.—Engineering.
