

edly in betraying his Master. V. 24. See also Acts ii. 23.

4. We should watch against the love of money; for it was this that betrayed the Lord of glory and eternally ruined the betrayer. V. 24. See Acts i. 25.

5. To be saved we must receive Christ. The bread and wine at the Lord's Supper are not merely contemplated and handled—they are partaken of. So the soul must feed upon Christ.

6. Christ's atoning work is perfect. A noble general would not institute a memorial to celebrate victories he had never achieved: much less would Christ.

7. The command, "Do this in remembrance of me," is most reasonable. Some glorious event in the history of a nation is joyfully commemorated; but what event is like the death of Christ? A dying parent makes a reasonable request in asking his children to perform some act occasionally by which his love may be vividly set before them. Can then Christ's dying command be unreasonable? As love for Christ is the grand qualification for the Lord's table, no one who is unfit for a place at that table can expect to drink the new wine of the kingdom above.

8. Christ will hold delightful fellowship with his people in heaven. V. 29.

News of the Church.

Presbytery of P. E. Island.

This Court met at Brown's Creek, on the 30th of July. There were present Revds. A. Campbell, Moderator pro tem, I. Murray, A. Munro, D. McNeill, A. Cameron, R. Laird, W. Ross, A. McLean, and A. Falconer. Commissions were sustained from the Sessions of Woodville, Queen's Square, Charlottetown, Free Church, and West River, appointing respectively Messrs D. Munn, W. Mutch, K. Henderson and D. McNevin, representative elders for the current year. Mr. Munn being present took his seat accordingly. After having chosen Rev. A. Fraser as Moderator and Rev. A. Falconer as Clerk for the current year, the Presbytery proceeded to the special work for which it was convened, viz: the consideration of the financial condition of Brown's Creek congregation. The Presbytery having refused to recommend this congregation any longer for a supplement, owing to its numerical strength, and considering the amount received by its minister to be entirely inadequate for his support, met to deliberate upon the best means to be employed to raise his salary. It was found that the amount promised was generally well paid. An opinion having obtained currency, that this congregation deemed the amount promised (£100 or £110) a competent support, the Presbytery proceeded to ascertain their mind on this point, when a unanimous expression of opinion was given that they do not consider the present salary a competency. After a lengthened discussion, as to the best method to be adopted to increase Mr. Munro's salary, it was decided not to disturb the present arrangements of the congregation, but to open up a separate subscription list. This list having been submitted, those parties present subscribed, to the amount of some £12.—The Rev. A. Campbell was appointed to visit the congregation, as soon as convenient, and complete the work thus initiated by the Presbytery,—the Rev. W. Ross to supply Mr. Campbell's pulpit on the Sabbath, during which he will be necessarily absent.—From the spirit manifested by the people of Brown's Creek on this occasion, it is confidently expected, that in the grace of liberality, as well as in all others, they will soon occupy, as they are well able to do, a prominent place among the congregations of the Presbytery.

The Clerk was instructed to give orders on the H. M. Board for the amounts due Rev. J. G. Cameron and Mr. Bearisto, Probationer, such an amount of these as can be obtained from the congregations in debt, to be refunded to the Board. Mr. Nelson was appointed to supply Murray Harbour congregation for two Sabbaths, and Mr. Archibald, Lot 14, for three Sabbaths, and New London South, for one Sabbath.

Adjourned to meet in Queen Square Church, Charlottetown, on Wednesday the 28th August, at 11 o'clock.

ALEX. FALCONER, Clerk.
