It is said that the Congress of the Deaf which will take place in Chicago next summer will begin in the week commencing July 17th.

There is a bill before the Oregon legislature to provide for suitable grounds and buildings for the school for the deaf. The present buildings are quite inadequate.

At Sedalia, Mo., there is said to be a telegraph operator who is deaf and dumb. He receives messages by placing his head against the instrument at which he is working, so as to feel its motion.

Philip Tobin, a deaf-mute has for several years past been "Door Keeper" of the Board of Aldermen of Brooklyn, N. Y. His duties and responsibilities are very light and his salary $1,200 per year.

The Pas-a-Pas Club will endeavor to establish a North Illinois Institution in Chicago, and for that purpose a committee has been appointed to co-operate with Supt. Vaught of the deaf-mute day schools.

The Oregon Legislature has passed a bill which takes the school for the deaf out of the hands of a private board of commissioners, transfers it to the custody of the Governor, Secretary of State and Superintendent of Public Instruction.

A great wrong will be done to the deaf children who are attending and may attend the West Virginia Institution, if the legislative body passes the bill which proposes to limit the term of schooling to five years, with a possible extension of two years, to worthy cases.—Advance.

A short time ago the dear friends of Chicago, who usually attend the religious services in the Methodist Church Block, did a commendable thing in making up a purse of ten dollars which was forwarded to Mr. Hendrick, of Germany, who was made to suffer for his exposure of the methods of training and treatment practiced in the German oral schools.—Advance.

The Nantucket Inquirer and Mirror is authority for the statement that the Mary and Bello, a small schooner belonging to Newport, R. I., is navigated by a crew of deaf men. The master is George W. Bennett; and the crew consists of one man, Charles Malone. Both were educated at the Hartford School. They are excellent seamen.

The students of the college for the deaf at Washington, gave $25 from the Sunday school treasury to assist Mr. Heidweik, the champion of the German deaf, in his fight against the barbarous cruelty towards the deaf persons in some of the German schools there. The investigation is now going on in the law courts, and the evidence is truly shocking. The Ohio Institution donated $15.

There is a rumor to the effect that Sept. Walker of the Kansas School is in danger of political decapitation.

The measles has taken possession of the California School, and they expect "more or less interruption of school for a month."

Supt. Walker, of the South Carolina School, has known, personally, every pupil of that school since its inauguration forty-four years ago.

The Superintendent of the North Dakota School has secured a patent on an envelope he has invented. Hope

"there's millions in it."

Beat n' Deaf-Muto.

The Inspector charges O'Hare with brutally beating a deal-mule Sunday night. He refuses to give the name of the etun, but says that the policeman cruelly maltreated the man without provocation at First Avenue and Thirty-

"It was a brutal affair, meriting the most severe punishment," said Inspector Williams, "and I shall press the charge before the Commissioners" — New York Journal.
