Motes.

Please invite and bring your friends and neighbors to our services, a have a church home for everybody.

It is the duty of every member to make an offering every Sunday.

IS IN NECESSARY, not merely for the financial progress of the church, but

IRS.—IN THE SPIRITUAL PROGRESS OF EACH MEMBER. No one is too poor to give mething; no one ought to be too proud to give a little, if it is a widow's

te. There is no excuse for any one not giving something for the support the Gospel at home and abroad.

The Young Men's Class "At Home" was a splendid success. We pe the young men were seriously at work during the evening securing new subjects for the class, and church. There is searcely anything our young an cannot do when they set themselves. In their hands is the future of our urch. Their real power will be the superiority of the Spiritual over all se. The thanks of the class are extended to the ladic and all who so nerously assisted. Young men, try again.

All the seats in our church are free. Pew-holders have no absolute atrol. If they come late and find strangers occupying their sittings they we no right to disturb them. We make this statement for the publicater is no need to remind our membership of this fact. All of our people e only too glad to fill their pews with strangers and friends. Let the peoposes e understand by our every act that this is the "People's Church," and we too se thoroughly glad to see them. Let the good work go on.

Try and be a little more social, especially in regard to strangers, on't wait for an introduction. Make everybody feel at home.

Our Revenue.—This Church is supported by the free will offerings of e people. Every member, young and old, is expected to contribute regardy. If each one gives as "God has prospered," no one will be hardened, in id there will be ample means for support of every department. Subscriptus now be made at any time to the Treasurer, Deacon W. T. Harris, id A. E. Soulis, Chairman of the Finance Committee, who will supply evelopes for "Current Expenses," "Mortgage Funn," and "Organ Unit."
