The Political Correspondence has a des. patch from Constantinople, dated the lst, which says: The demand of the Turkish Government for guarantees against future disturbances on the part of Servin, still occupies a prominent part in the negotiasolved that Servian railways shall be built by Turkey since Servia is unable to offer guarantees for their construction. Porte, being disquieted by Russian news and the influx of Russian volunteers into Servia is considering the advisability of clos-ing the Danube. Steps will be taken on Monday to bring about the conclusion of an farmistice.
