

We learn that the "Western Miller," which left this port on the 15th inst., struck a stone at the entrance of the Lachine Canal on Saturday morning last, and sunk shortly after. Her cargo consisting of four thousand bushels of Wheat, insured at the British American, and fifteen hundred barrels of Flour, uninsured, was materially damaged. The vessel has been floated, and is now undergoing repairs.--Patriot.

ECONOMY
A REMEDY AGAINST HARD TIMES.

THE Subscriber thankful for the liberal patronage he has hitherto received, begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he continues to RENOVATE FEATHERS by his improved PATENT STEAM FEATHER RENOVATOR, by which Moths and other insects are destroyed; Grease, Dust, and unpleasant odours are removed, and the feathers expanded and restored to their original lightness, and by which a saving of at least one-fourth is attained. For instance, a Bed weighing 30lbs., after having been steam dressed, is equal to 40lbs. previous to being dressed.
The undersigned is happy in being enabled to state, that while the above benefits are derived, the operation of the machine is such that it is impossible to bruise or otherwise injure the wear of the feathers, and that in every case where he has dressed feathers, whether old or new, the parties have expressed themselves in terms of the most decided satisfaction.
Persons desirous of having feathers renovated, are requested to call and examine his long list of testimonials and references; among which will be found the names of several of the Professors in the Medical department of the University, who have patronized and recommended this Renovator to the public, as being one of the best inventions ever introduced into this City, contributing as it does, to the health and comfort of all who give it a trial.
No loss in weight will be sustained in dressing, except the dust extracted.
Beds sent to the Subscriber by 8 o'clock, A. M., can be returned the same evening, if required.
CHARGES FOR RENOVATING:—Geese Feathers, per lb., 3d., Chicken do. do., 2d.
Dealers in Feathers (to whom a liberal allowance will be made) will find it much to their advantage to send them to be steam dressed, as the rank only smell, usually accompanying new feathers, will be entirely removed.
