THE firm of Oliver & Byron, Selkirk, Man., began business as general store-keepers a little more than four years ago. At that time they had a good deal of money invested in real estate. This investment always cramped them, and now they are obliged to assign.—H. L. Litka commenced a general store in 1899 at Strathcona, and already he has discovered that he cannot continue. An assignment has been made.—An offer of compromise is made by T. D. Stewart, who keeps a general store at Carman, Man.—It is about two years since T. C. McRae succeeded Rogers Bros., tailors, Winnipeg. Formerly he had been employed by them as cutter, and had saved some money. He has assigned.

WILLIAM CAMERON, after having changed his occupation several times, built an hotel, and in July, 1890, opened a general store at Oil Springs. Not possessing good business ability, he finds it impossible to carry on both at the same time, and now places his assets, among which are a large amount of worthless debts, in the hands of an assignee.—Last May, J. T. B. Rowell bought the grocery stock of Mrs. Frymire, at Toronto Junction, paying $1,000, cash, for the same. Finding that he could not meet his bills, he mortgaged his stock in December, and now assigns.—Thirteen years ago, Jno. McGaw opened a hardware store in Markham, with a capital of $1,000. For some time he did a nice trade, but lately he found competition too keen to make money, and he is now obliged to assign.

AMONG the Canadians who have gone to the United States to push their fortunes and have done so successfully, are Mr. Loftus Cuddy, of the Cuddy-Falls Company, private bankers, of Amherstburg, Ont., and Mr. Martin Mullen, who went to Cleveland, Ohio, some few years ago. We learn about them, as follows, from the Marine Review, of that city: "After holding out against the Pittsburg Coal Co. ($64,000,000 consolidation), for several months, Martin Mullen, of the Cuddy-Mullen Coal, Co., Cleveland, has finally sold out his interests in mines and in the lake coal trade to the consolidation. Mr. Loftus Cuddy sold his half interest in the Cuddy-Mullen Company to the consolidation when it was being formed, but Mr. Mullen demanded a higher price than his partner. The amount he received has not been made public, but it is said to have been sufficient to pay him well for the chance he took in opposing the big corporation."
