SCRIBNERS' IMPORTANT NEW BOOKS.

Stockton's Stories. THE LADY, OR THE TIGER? 1 vol., 12mo, cloth, $1.25. CONTENTS: The Lady, or the Tiger? The Transferred Ghost, The Spectral Mortgage, Our Archery Club, That Same Old Coon, His Wife's Deceased Sister, Our Story, Mr. Tolmen, On the Training of Parents, Our Fire Screen, A Piece of Red Calico, and Every Man His Own Letter-Writer. THE CHRISTMAS WRECK. 1 vol., 12mo, cloth, $1.25. CONTENTS: The Christmas Week, A Story of Assisted Fate, An Unhistoric Page, A Tale of Negative Gravity, The Cloverfield's Carriage, The Remarkable Wreck of the "Thomas Hyke," My Bull-Calf, The Discourager of Hesitancy (sequel to "The Lady, or the Tiger?"), and a Borrowed Month (East and West). "Frank R. Stockton has the knack—perhaps genius would be a better word—of writing in the easiest of colloquial English without descending to the plane of the vulgar or commonplace. With the added charm of a most delicate humour, his stories become an irresistible attraction."—Philadelphia Times.

A SECRET OF THE SEA, and other stories. By BRANDER MATTHEWS. Cloth, $1.00; yellow paper series, 50 cents. Readers of Mr. Matthews' earlier short stories need not be reminded of the ingenuity and cleverness of his writings. This volume, issued in both paper and cloth-bound editions, contains six tales, the longest being "A Secret of the Sea," which records the adventures of a modern ocean steamer set upon by pirates on the high seas. IN PARTNERSHIP. By BRANDER MATTHEWS and H. C. BUNNER. New edition, yellow paper series, 50 cents. THE BOOK BUYER. An illustrated monthly Summary of American and Foreign Literature. $1.00 a year. Send for sample copy.

THE MAKING OF NEW ENGLAND. 1580-1643. By SAMUEL ADAMS DRAKE. Illustrated. 1 vol., 12mo, $1.50.

Mr. Drake has told the story of New England in such a marvellously vivid and graphic way that his book reads like a romance. But interesting as it is it has also a special claim upon readers, in that every statement has been verified by the light of modern research. The illustrations are admirable, and are to be found on almost every page.

A HISTORY OF GREEK LITERATURE. From the Earliest Period to the Death of Demosthenes. By FRANK BYRON JEVONS, M.A., Tutor in the University of Durham. 1 vol., crown 8vo, $2.50.

The reader who is anxious to gain a sound knowledge of the literature of classic Greece will find Mr. Jevon's book thorough-going and accurate. The author goes into detail with sufficient fulness to make the history complete, but he never loses sight of the commanding lines along which the Greek mind moved, and a clear understanding of which is necessary to every intelligent student of universal literature.

"A sound and useful piece of work. Very readable."—Saturday Review, London.

THE AGE OF ELECTRICITY. From Amber-soul to Telephone. By PARK BENJAMIN, Ph.D. Illustrated. 1 vol., 12mo, $2.00.

The wonderful advances which have been made in practically applying electric force to the service of man has made such a book as this almost a necessity. Mr. Benjamin gives a popular and comprehensive account of the advancement of electrical science from the earliest to the latest times. Of especial interest and importance are his descriptions of the most recent inventions and achievements. The book is profusely illustrated.

CONQUEST OF MEXICO

Prescott's HISTORY of the CONQUEST of MEXICO. With a Preliminary View of the Ancient Mexican Civilization, and the Life of the Conqueror: Hernando Cortés. Illustrated Library Edition, in two volumes, small octavo. Price, $2.25. Popular Edition, two volumes in one, without illustrations, $1.25. Now ready.

Copyright. The expiration of copyright enables me now to present this great work to American readers at a popular price, yet in form worthy of the author, and worthy of the finest library. Its mechanical qualities are fairly equal to those of my best edition of "Guizot's History of France."

Whipple, the noted essayist and critic, says: "A history possessing the unity, variety, and interest of a magnificent poem. It deals with a series of facts and exhibits a gallery of characters, which to have invented would place the creator by the side of Homer; and which to realize and represent in the mode Mr. Prescott has done, required a rare degree of historical imagination."

Beyond ALL PRAISE. "This announcement is all that is needed. The work itself long ago passed beyond all praise. The thousands of people who were unable to secure it at former prices will be glad to avail themselves of the opportunity of doing so at a reduced rate."—Interior, Chicago, Ill. "The work itself occupies too high a place among historical writings to need commendation."—The Mail, Toronto, Ontario.

Timely. "The enterprising Mr. Alden has chosen a most timely occasion for the reissue of this valuable work, and its excellent and convenient library form, its cheapness, and the widespread interest in Mexican matters that exists at present, will doubtless combine to give it an appreciative reception."—The Week, Toronto, Ontario.

"The volume before us is a very creditable piece of work mechanically, and puts Prescott's charming histories within the reach of the average pocket book."—Evangelist, St. Louis, Mo.

Fascinating. "This history has a fascinating interest, and is so well known as to need no praise."—Christian Secretary, Hartford, Conn. "Especially interesting at this time. Is published in two handsome volumes, and like all Mr. Alden's publications is sold at an astonishingly low price."—Advertiser, Detroit, Mich.

A Noble Work; planned and admirably executed; rich with the spoils of learning easily and gracefully worn; imbued everywhere with a conscientious love of the truth, and controlled by that unerring good sense without which genius leads astray with its false lights, and learning encumbers with its heavy panoply. It will win the literary vultuary to its pages by the attractiveness of its subject and the flowing ease of its style; and the historical student will do honor to the extent and variety of the research which it displays. It will take its place among those enduring productions of the human mind which age cannot stale and custom cannot wither.—G.S. HILLARD

FERDINAND AND ISABELLA. HISTORY of the REIGN of Ferdinand and Isabella, the Catholic. By WILLIAM H. PRESCOTT. Illustrated Library Edition, in two volumes, small octavo, including portraits and other illustrations. Fine heavy paper, fine cloth, gilt tops. Price, $2.25. Popular Edition, from the same plates, but without illustrations, the two volumes in one. Price, $1.25. Now ready.

"Prescott had the genius to invest the dry facts of history with the charms of fiction; and yet he never sacrifices truth to the graces of style."—WESTLAKE.

"It is one of the most pleasing as well as most valuable contributions that have been made to modern history; it is the only one that gives us a faithful and sufficient picture of a period so momentous as the latter half of the fifteenth century."—London Athenæum.

"One of the finest histories of modern times, written by an author of rare felicity of diction, fervor of imagination, accuracy of statement, and exquisite beauty of style. Every one who reads at all should read Prescott."—Presbyterian, Philadelphia, Pa.
