

13. If any person to whom this Act applies is removed from office in consequence of the abolition of his office for the purpose of improving the organization of the department to which he belongs, or is removed or retired from office to promote efficiency or economy in the Civil Service, the Governor in Council may, as compensation for his loss of office, grant such person, if his term of service is less than ten years, a gratuity not exceeding three months' pay for every two years' service; and if such person's term of service is ten years but less than twenty-five years, the Governor in Council may grant him, in addition to the superannuation allowance to which his term of service entitles him, a gratuity not exceeding one month's pay for each year's service; but no gratuity or compensation other than the superannuation allowance to which his term of service entitles him, shall be granted to any such person whose term of service is twenty-five years or upwards.

14. The amounts deducted from salary under the terms of section 15 of this Act shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund; and the superannuation and other allowances and gratuities granted under this Act shall be payable out of the said Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Contributions.

15. A deduction shall be made from the salary of every civil servant to whom this Act applies at the rate of four per centum per annum on such salary; but such deduction shall be made only during the first thirty-five years of service.

2. An account shall be kept, to be called the Civil Service Superannuation Account, Number Three, of all amounts received and paid out under the pro-
