

INTERNATIONAL TRADE - 2 -
ADVISORY COMMITTEES ON TRADE MATTERS

The Advisory Committees are intended to be the principal channels of advice to the Government on trade issues. While information and advice conveyed to the Government by specific firms, associations and labour groups will continue to be useful and welcome, the Minister will be looking primarily to the advisory committee system as the source of private sector input on trade matters.

Biographical material on Mr. Light is attached.

For further information, please contact:

Dwayne Wright
Senior Advisor & Coordinator
Trade Advisory Committees Secretariat (DMTA)
Department of External Affairs
Ottawa (613) 990-0370.