

EASTER RECESS

ADJOURNMENT APRIL 2 TO APRIL 14

Hon. H. A. Olson (Minister of Agriculture): Mr. Speaker, I wonder whether I might be permitted to move the adjournment of this session—

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Of this house. You are not Governor General yet!

Mr. Olson: Yes, of this house. However, before I do so may I be permitted to express to Your Honour and to members on both sides of the house my wish that they will have a very restful, enjoyable and well deserved recess.

Mr. Stanley Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the members of this party we wish to thank the Acting Prime Minister (Mr. Olson) for the very kind words he has just spoken. We join in the greetings he has expressed and in particular we would like to wish Your Honour a restful and enjoyable Easter break.

Hon. Robert L. Stanfield (Leader of the Opposition): Mr. Speaker, we will say it with flowers.

Mr. Speaker: I thank hon. members for their kind wishes. Before putting the motion of the minister to the house, may I take advantage of this opportunity to extend my warmest greetings and good wishes to hon. members for a well and richly deserved holiday.

[Translation]

I wish my colleagues of the House of Commons a restful and well-deserved vacation. I sincerely wish them all a happy Easter.

[English]

According to tradition I am pleased to invite hon. members to join me in room 16 at the time of adjournment.

[Translation]

I have the pleasure to invite the hon. members their friends, the officials of the house and their colleagues, as well as the members of the press gallery, to gather in room 16 for a few moments.

[English]

Mr. Olson: I move, seconded by the Minister of National Revenue (Mr. Coté): That this house do now adjourn.

Motion agreed to.

Mr. Speaker: Pursuant to the order made this day this house stands adjourned until Monday, April 14, 1969, at two o'clock in the afternoon.

At seven minutes past four the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to special order.
