- After which the Right Honourable the Deputy of the Governor General was pleased to close the First Session of the Twenty-first Parliament of Canada with the following Speech:
- Honourable Members of the Senate:
 Members of the House of Commons:
- Since the opening of the present session of parliament you have approved measures required for the discharge of the constitutional responsibilities of our nationhood. As a result the Supreme Court of Canada will shortly become the final court of appeal for Canada.
- In response to your address the parliament of the United Kingdom has amended the British North America Act to vest in the Parliament of Canada the power to make amendments to the constitution of Canada in matters which are exclusively of federal concern.
- Early in the New Year a conference with representatives of the provincial governments will be held for the purpose of working out a satisfactory procedure for making within Canada such other amendments to the constitution as may from time to time be required.
- Our country continues to take an active part in the proceedings of the United Nations. Despite that organization's present inability to solve the major political problem confronting mankind, the United Nations has succeeded in coping with menacing situations in many parts of the world. At the current session of the General Assembly, Canada was elected to the Economic and Social Council.
- It is gratifying that the agencies under the North Atlantic Treaty have been established and are undertaking the tasks which have been assigned to them.
