

41, ST. GILES',
OXFORD.

therefore, to be quite sure that the appointment is definitive & not provisional, or subject to any further ratification. No doubt you will be able to give me assurances on this head so that any action I might take with regard to Cape Town would be fully grounded.

There is much that I find attractive about the post as I reflect upon it, but a change would involve so much for me & for those dependant upon me that I have to give to every aspect of it the most
