

though there might have been a few things for a very fastidious taste to object against, yet on the whole, he must have been a querulous man indeed who came away dissatisfied with his evening's treat, or unimpressed afresh with the inherent beauty, excellence and necessity of the Total Abstinence Cause.

Dr. Menderhall was the President, and Rev. Mr. Kendrick, the Chaplain of the evening.