

District of Massachusetts, to wit :

District Clerk's Office.

BE it remembered, that on the sixth day of March, A D. (L. S.) 1816, and in the fortieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, ROWZ & HOOPER, of the said District, have deposited in this Office, the title of a Book, the Right whereof they claim as Proprietors, in the words following, to wit :

"A Journal of a Young Man of Massachusetts, late a Surgeon on board an American Privateer, who was captured at Sea by the British, in May, eighteen hundred and thirteen, and was confined first, at Melville Island, Halifax, then at Chatham, in England, and last at Dartmoor Prison. Interspersed with Observations, Anecdotes and Remarks, tending to illustrate the moral and political characters of three nations. To which is added, a correct Engraving of Dartmoor Prison, representing the Massacre of American prisoners. Written by himself. "Nothing extenuate, or set down aught in malice.".....Shakespeare."

In conformity to the Act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such Copies, during the Times therein mentioned ;" and also to an Act entitled, "An Act supplementary to an Act, entitled an Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and Books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned ; and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical, and other prints."

WM. S. SHAW,
Clerk of the District of Massachusetts.
