MONTREAL EASY FOR ARGONAUT

Weakened M.A.A.A. Squa Unable to Stop Ross Bink ley's Plungers and Double Blue Ran Up the Score.

By their performance at Rosedale on Saturday, argonauts convinced the public that they have a splendid chance for the Interprovincial championship. There was never any doubt as to the outcome of the tussle with Montreal. Argonauts were favorites before the game, and were always in the lead. They were superior from all angles a stronger line, a faster and more effective back division, and wings that were speedier and classier tacklers. Despite the downpour of rain and the uncertain footing it was a game worth while. Taking into consideration the miserable day, the good crowd of fans were undoubtedly satisfied. The final score was 23 to 11, and it might be mentioned in passing that Montreal got all their points on the mistakes of the double blue—two fumbles behind their goal line that resulted in touchdowns for the visitors, one of which was converted, accounting for 11 points. There were absolutely no flukes on the part of the oarsmen; they won every point by rattling good playing.

DOPING OUT RUGBY CHAMPIONSHIP

Three Corner Fight in Big Four With Chances Good for Argonauts—A Review Saturday's Gridiron

doping cut the Rugby championships at such an early date. Saturday's games had caused considerable guessing, so there is has been recorded in Canadian football history among the senior teams. Of course, this was expected. But it was not expected, however, that Varsity would fall before the cadets in Kingston.

Varsity left Toronto with the idea of not defeating R.M.C. by too big a score, so as not to discourage them and make the league somewhat of a burlesque. But the soldiers kept the score low for the first three quarters, and then when Maynard was incapacitated the local collegians took the air route. This seems unfortunate, because if Varsity were playing their game R.M.C. should not have been a difficult obstacle to overcome. Varsity have literally thrown away their chances for the championship by this one defeat They will have to down McGill at home and abroad to win, and this would be a herculean task. It is likely that McGill will defeat Queen's at Kingston and R.M.C. at both places, and, judging by Saturday's results in the two games, the Montreal boys will vanquish Varsity in one of their two games at least. Next Saturday, when Varsity plays McGill is the crucial game. Sizing it up from every angle, the Intercollegiate flag seems practically in the grasp of the table-trained team, Old McGill, for the second consecutive year.

If McGill should go ahead and repeat in the College Union, as is indicated in the opening games, the Montreal students may adhere to their course set a year ago, and refuse to play off with the other champions. The semifinal this year is college champions at Ontario champions, and the final on the ground of the Big Four winners.

Judging by the defeat of the Parkdale squad by the Torontos on Saturday, the latter team have started off at a lightning clip for the Senior O.R.F.U. honors. Of course, neither team has played Hamilton Rowing Club as yet, and there may tor in McGill's One-Sided Victory Over Queen's.

MONTREAL, Oct. 11.—In a game replete with brilliant runs, clever line-plunging and sensational punting on the part of Don Brophy, a newcomer in senion college ranks, McGill opened the Intercollegiate season by scoring an easy victory over Queens, beating them by a score of 49 to 2. Both universities presented a vastly different line-up from that of a year ago, and previous to the commencement of play little advantage could be claimed by either. The new men who figured on the line and back divisions of both teams were practically untried and unknown quantities. Brophy who replaced the famous Billington at centre half for McGill, made good, and in almost every department of the game was the equal of the great half-back, who practically won the championship for his team thru his clever kicking a year ago. In all of the punting duels between Brophy and Hazlett, the best of the opposing backs, the McGill player had the advantage. Lemay was another surprise. He had attracted little attention during the weeks of practice, but in the match he was responsible for the ma. prise. He had attracted little attention during the weeks of practice, but in the match he was responsible for the majority of the gains, being used almost exclusively for the line-plunging.

At the commencement of the play the winners were off on their signal work, but after becoming settled down, worked in machine-like order. The game was far from being the walkever that the score would indicate, and McGill were forced to fight for every point they got, Queens playing gamely to the end, finishing on the aggressive.

Altho four penalties were imposed by Altho four penalties were imposed by the officials, the play was free from roughness at all times. Two accidents of a minor nature were caused by hard tackling, Lewis of McGill and Demuth of McGill scored their points on three touches by George Laing, two by Waterous, and one each by Hughes, Montgomery and Lemay: three rouges from punts of Brophy's, and an onside kick that went to the dead-line.

McGill won the toss and elected to play with the brisk wind blowing in their favor. The line-up: favor. The line-up:

MAYNARD TO PLAY SOON.

Jack Maynard, captain of the Varsity Rugby team, had his collar-bone severely wrenched in the game at Kingston, and it will be two weeks at least before he will play again, At first it was feared that the bone was broken, but further investigations have not brought to light any fracture, and possibly, outside of a ligament ar a bad sprain, he will escape without serious injury. His absence from the game will be a severe setback to the blue and white, as they play McGill in Montreal next Saturday, while, on the following Saturday. Queens will tackle Varsity at the stadium.

KINGSTON, Oct. 12. Royal Military College made their initial appearance in the Intercollegiate Union by taking a lis to 14 victory from the Toronto University team. The Cadets won an uphill battle in the final minutes of the play when Barwis broke the existing tie with a beautiful punt which forced Carr to rouge. It was a hard blow to the blue and white, and also a very surprising one as they had not counted on such cleancut opposition. The far superior condition of the soldiers told in the final minutes of play when the blue and white boys faded before the onslaught.

Brownfield was very effective with his running at flying wing, but Barwis starred with his punting and headwork thruout the struggle. McAuley played a nice game at centre half. The tackling of Schoenberger was very spectacular. The soldiers are a well-balanced team and will be ready now to give any of the other colleges a good struggle for the henced down out DeGruchy's park and the could rim out DeGruchy's punt. The score at half time was: T.R. & A.A. 3, Parkdale 1.

Maynard was a shining light for Varsity until he retired. Gage, Campbell, MacKenzie and Carr behind the line tried to keep the machine going after Maynard left, but it seemed clogged somewhere. They all performed brilliantly when Captain Jack was on the field, but the team started to do individual work. Pete Campbell tried to jump into the breach, but he could not hold the boys, and even he was soon found trying to breach, but he could not hold the boys, and even he was soon found trying to rip things up by himself. Once he got away for twenty-five yards and it took five men to down him.

A very large crowd saw the game and they cheered the victors on. A strong wind at the start was blowing down the field, which gave a big advantage to the team kicking before the wind. A heavy rain had made the ground treacherous and did not make catching sure, with the result that any attempt at long passing or catching of punts ended disastrously for the player making them. T.R. & A.A. won the opening game in the O.R.F.U: Saturday at Varsity Stadium by the score of 21 to 7, when they defeated Parkdale in a rather greasy game. A well-soaked field and a slippery ball baffled the players most of the time, and during a considerable portion of the game a heavy downpour of rain made things worse. Fumbles were noticeable at all times, but the winners were more lucky in covering up their mistakes. The game was chiefly a punting game with DeGruchy outkicking Gall at nearly every attempt.

Playing on a wet and slippery field at Broadview. Hamilton Tigers, intermediate interprovincial team, downed Central Y.M.C.A. 15 to 5. The play was rather slow, neither team showing anything like championship class. In the first quarter Tigers forced a rouge and scored five more on a touch, which was not converted. Central came back in the second period and fought like demons. lifting the Tiger line off their feet. Their only score was in this period when they bucked for their yards three times and eventually got the line. In the lest half the over the line. In the last half the Tigers had a little the better of the argument and forced five rouges. besides three on a drop kick, making the final score Tigers 15, Central5.
