The Mendelssohn Quintette Club respectfully announce that they have established

A NATIONAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC, for the purpose of affording an opportunity to obtain a thorough musical education, in all branches of the art, vocal and instrumental.

Pupils, sufficiently advanced in their studies, have frequent opportunities of singing or playing to accompaniment furnished by the Club.

The College has a corps of teachers composed of the best foreign and resident artists.

For full particulars of time, terms, &c., send for circular to

THOMAS RYAN,

Director of National College of Music, Tremont Temple, BOSTON, MASS.
