

JOHN CATTO & SON

Store Closes Daily at 5:30 p.m.

JUNE SPECIALS

LADIES' TWEED AND CLOTH COSTUMES. This season's styles, well made and finished, regularly $15 to $20, now $10 to $12.

LADIES' COATS. balance of this season's stock, comprising nearly every popular style and fabric, regularly $12 to $15, now $8 to $10 each.

Linen Robe Lengths.

A specially nice lot of White Irish Linen Embroidered Shaped Gowns, full size, $8.95, $10 and $11 each.

Muslin Dresses.

We have a lot of extra good value White Muslin Dresses, neatly trimmed, Swiss insertion and Valenciennes lace, full designs, cut to attract the attention these deserve at $5 and $7.50 each.

White Shirt Waists.

Splendid lot of White Muslin Shirt Waists, very EXTRA VALUE at $1 and $1.50 EACH.

Wash Dress Fabrics.

The balance of Wash Goods stock is to be cleared out during this month, and many good "pickings" may be searched out here.

For Tourists.

We are justly famous for our comprehensive stock of Traveling Wraps and Bags, which range in price from $5 to $10 each.

Outing Shawls.

FANCY KNIT HONEYCOMB and DENIM WOOL SHAWLS (imitation Shetland), beautiful lace effects, $5, $5.50, $6 to $8 each.

Household Goods.

White Honeycomb Quilts, $1, $1.25 and $1.50 each.
Cotton Blankets, 75c to $1.50.
Fifty dozen Bath Towels (white and brown), 25c to 50c each.
Sheets, Towels, Tablecloths and Napkins very special.
Bedroom and Living Room Curtains from 50c pair up.
Great display of a new lot of Italian Rugs, $1.50 to $2 each.
Hemstitched and Embroidered Tea Cloths, very special at $1 each.

MAIL ORDERS RECEIVE PROMPT AND CAREFUL ATTENTION.

JOHN CATTO & SON

King-street-Opposite Post-Office, TORONTO.

MARK TWAIN JOKE

Continued from Page 1.

have mentioned it to her. I could have said it and spoken the truth, but I have been too wise for that. I have kept the remark unuttered, and that has saved her majesty the vexation of hearing it for the ten thousand and one time.

"All that report about my proposal to buy Windsor Castle and its grounds as a false rumour, I have heard," Mr. Clemens has announced that he will be a passenger on the steamer Minneka, sailing for New York July 15. This prolongation of his stay abroad has enabled him to accept a few of the hundreds of invitations that are pouring in on him.

The staff of Punch invited him to a dinner at the Savoy on July 9, but he intimated his preference to dine in the famous Punch room at the Punch offices, and the dinner will be given there.

Mr. Clemens considers this one of the greatest honors of his visit.

The party at Windsor.

The garden party given at Windsor to mark the close of the season, was the first royal party since the late Queen Victoria's in 1897, which became known as the "Consolation Party," on the occasion of the death of the Queen. The city bodies presented addresses to the Queen after her jubilee. Thru a misunderstanding of the attendants some of the prominent leaders of parliament and others were unceremoniously shut out of Buckingham Palace during the jubilee presentation, and were given a garden party, to which she invited the injured members, for the purpose of placating them.

John Burns, then as now, a labor member from Battersea, and at present president of the local government board, attended the occasion and drew down upon himself the denunciations of his socialist followers for "flaunting" to royalty. During the past ten years Mr. Burns has presented himself at many aristocratic functions and was on hand early to-day, in a black dress, as commanded in the invitation.

The King of Siam, who was an object of curious interest, wore a frock coat and a high silk hat.

William Crooks, labor member of parliament for Woolwich, appeared in company with Mr. Burns, attired in a black coat and high hat. Altogether, the party was a most representative social assemblage of all varieties of persons prominent during King Edward's reign.

Special Specials.

Ten special trains brought the London guests, and all the royal party to Windsor were crowded with motor cars through the afternoon.

By the King's express from the station received special recognition.

The list of Canadian guests, which was specially supervised by his majesty, comprised 47 names, including Senators MacDonald, Gibson, Ellis and Wilkes; Premier McBride, Premier Borden and wife, Mrs. Andrew Allan, Col. and Mrs. Sterling Ryerson, Col. and Mrs. Gibson, Col. and Mrs. Crawford, Lady Kirkpatrick, Judge Wells, Col. Leonard, W. L. and Mrs. Griffith, the Royal Canadian grain commissioners, Miller, McNair, Goldie, Field and their wives.

A Word in Season.

We would be pleased to have your order for cleaning and putting in perfect condition your furnace or heater, or for estimating the cost of a complete improvement or change in same. Phone M. 7000. Peace Heating Company, Ltd., 26-28 East Queen-street.

THE WEATHER

Meteorological Office, Toronto, June 23.—Temperatures of 90 have been recorded to-day at many points between Ontario and New Brunswick and local thunder-showers have occurred. In the western provinces the temperatures have been moderate and the weather fair, except that local showers and thunderstorms have occurred in Saskatchewan and Manitoba.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Vancouver, 77-85; Kamloops, 75-85; Calgary, 74-77; Edmonton, 72-77; Swift Current, 44-62; Winnipeg, 64-74; Parry Sound, 62-82; Toronto, 60-80; Ottawa, 59-80; Montreal, 66-85; Quebec, 62-84; Halifax, 50-72.

Probabilities.

Lower lakes, Georgian Bay, Ottawa and Upper Lawrence—Moderate variable winds; fair and very warm; thunderstorms in a few localities.

Maritime—Southwestern winds; fair and warm.

Superior and Manitoba—Fair, with not much change in temperature.

Saskatchewan and Alberta—Fair and warmer.

THE BAROMETER.

Time.	Ther.	Bar.	Wind.
8 a.m.	66	29.74	E.E.
Noon	77	29.72	E.
2 p.m.	78	29.70	E.
4 p.m.	72	29.63	E.
10 p.m.	68	29.63	E.

Mean of day, 70; difference from average, 3 above; highest, 80; rain, .01; highest Saturday, 83; lowest, .01.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

June 23	At	From
Tunisian	Liverpool	Montreal
Parisian	London	London
St. Paul	New York	Southampton
Columbia	New York	Glasgow
St. Laurent	New York	Have
Campania	New York	Naples
Liban	London	London
Caledonia	London	London
St. Louis	Southampton	New York
St. Paul	Southampton	New York
La Provence	Have	New York
Algeria	Gibraltar	New York
Utopia	Naples	New York

TO-DAY IN TORONTO.

Forepaugh and Sells Circus, Sunlight Park, Riverside, 1 and 7.
Baseball, Toronto vs. Providence, Diamond Park, 4.

ROUTE OF THE CIRCUS PARADE.

Leaving the show grounds at Sunlight Park, Monday morning at 9:30, the Forepaugh-Sells Circus parade will move south on Broadview-avenue to Queen-street, then west on Queen-street to York-street; south on York-street to King-street; north on King-street to Bay-street; north on Bay-street to Adelaide-street; east on Adelaide-street; crossing Jarvis-street to Duke-street; along Duke-street to Sherbourne-street; thence via King and Queen-streets to the circus lot.

BIRTHS.

BAKER—At 255 St. Clarens-avenue, on Tuesday, June 18th, to Mr. and Mrs. A. Baker, a daughter.
WILLIAMS—At 1471 Weston-Boulevard, Toronto, on Sunday, June 23rd, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilgar, a son.

MARRIAGES.

BENSON-MEYER—By the Rev. Manly Benson, D.D., at Perth, Ont., on Saturday, June 22nd, 3 p.m., at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Meyer, Toronto, Katherine (Kate) Eunice, eldest daughter, to Manly Starr Benson, of Ottawa, Ontario, son of Dr. and Mrs. Manly Benson.

DEATHS.

BOOTH—At West Liberty, Ohio, on Friday, June 21st, Arthur George Booth, in his 35th year.
FURNER—From his residence, 91 Halden-street, Toronto, on Monday, June 24th, at 2:30 p.m., to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

DAVIS—June 22nd, at his late residence, 300 Queen-street West, James Davis, in his 48th year.

FURNER—At 2:30 p.m., Monday, June 24th, HERBERT, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Furner, 20 Union-street, Toronto, Ontario, aged 2 years.

FURNER—On Sunday, June 23rd, 1907, at his late residence, 161 Kensington-avenue, Toronto, Ontario, aged 8 years, the beloved wife of Charles Hermann, a native of Germany.

FURNER—On Sunday, June 23rd, at 2:30 p.m., to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, the late Mrs. J. H. Furner, nee Hermann, aged 8 years.

HINDIE—At her late residence, 101 Kensington-avenue, Toronto, on Friday, June 21st, Rhoda J. Lee, dearly beloved wife of J. H. Hindie, in her 42nd year.

KELLY—On Monday, June 24th, at 2:30 p.m., to Prospect Cemetery, the late Mrs. J. H. Kelly, nee Hermann, aged 8 years.

KELLY—On Sunday, June 23rd, 1907, at his late residence, 161 Kensington-avenue, Toronto, Ontario, aged 8 years, the beloved wife of Charles Hermann, a native of Germany.

KELLY—On Sunday, June 23rd, at 2:30 p.m., to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, the late Mrs. J. H. Kelly, nee Hermann, aged 8 years.

KELLY—On Sunday, June 23rd, at 2:30 p.m., to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, the late Mrs. J. H. Kelly, nee Hermann, aged 8 years.

JAPANESE GREET FUSHIMI.

Six Thousand in Vancouver Pay Tribute to Prince.

VANCOUVER, B.C., June 23.—A royal welcome was accorded H.R.H. Prince Fushimi of Japan yesterday when he arrived at noon over the C.P.R. on his tour of the Pacific coast. He was met at the station by Mayor Bethune, the city council, and representatives of other public bodies. All thru the city decorations were in evidence, but the Japanese quarter was simply one blaze of color. It seemed as if all the Japanese of the city had turned out to greet their prince. Hundreds came in also from outside points, so that over 6000 Japs were on hand.

DISMISSAL OF DOUMA

AN ACT OF NECESSITY

The Situation in Russian Parliament as Explained by Cabinet "Insider."

ST. PETERSBURG, June 23.—In answer to various objections leveled at the government for its recent course and action, the Associated Press has secured the following declaration of the position and policy of the cabinet from one who is considered one of its most liberal members.

"The will of the people is the supreme law, higher than the written constitution, and both the decrees of dissolution and the new electoral law are the fruit of this conviction."

"The emperor summons the nation to choose representatives under the old electoral law for a distinct and two-fold purpose, to examine and ratify the budget and to draft and enact laws. The second duma had shown itself incapable of either task. My department introduced three hundred bills, both small and big, during its sessions, which related to definite national needs that could not properly be deferred. Other ministries introduced a corresponding mass of pressing legislation, but during three months all of these bills remained unacted. Instead the duma shamefully wasted time discussing the rights of man."

"For example, it devoted a whole session to denouncing the use of handcuffs, which are used in Great Britain and America, and threatened that all dumas elected under the old electoral law would be equally ready to talk and unwilling to act."

Had to Do It.

"Owing to the impossibility of obtaining the duma's consent to changes in the electoral law, which would give us a businesslike third duma, the government itself was obliged to decree the change."

"The new law favors genuine Russian stock at the expense of aliens and taxpayers at the expense of non-taxpayers. The critics say that the law will promote aristocracy and oligarchy, but the west, which boasts an advanced institution, has not yet worked out a perfect system of representation."

"We issued the law as did the Prussians in 1848. The most of its features are modelled on various German precedents. These classes will possess a majority in the new duma, which actually have the upper hand, as in the British parliament and the American congress, and other successful legislatures."

"It is the distinct purpose of the emperor to obtain a parliament which will respect property. If his calculations are at fault he will not hesitate to dissolve a third duma or a fourth until the result is achieved."

"As the their appetite grew by eating, the Russian people have had the habit of clamoring loudly for the rights just after the government has made substantial concessions."

"Thus the uprising in Moscow in 1905 followed upon the heels of the success of an October manifesto; thus occurred several of the episodes in the life of the Russian monarchy, but Russian monarchy has shown an unflinching ability to reassert itself after collapse."

"Five years ago a constitutional assembly was deemed sufficient by public opinion, but the emperor actually granted a legislative assembly. But the people were not appeased, and clamored for a parliamentary ministry. The duma and the ministry gradually learned to respect each other's rights. There is no likelihood that there ever will be a stable duma, because the diversity of races and economic interests are such that monarchy is the only bulwark against anarchy breaking up the empire."

Party Prospects.

"This is so potent the Constitutional Democrats, which is a socialistic party, will ultimately rally to the state. The Constitutional Democrats cater to the Jews and other races in order to get votes and subscriptions. They are the diversity of races and economic interests are such that monarchy is the only bulwark against anarchy breaking up the empire."

"The action of the C.P.R. in setting up thru connections between St. Paul and Spokane is considered a disgraceful and dishonest move, and was suggested."

"Oh," said Mr. Hill, "that sort of thing is part of the game. There is something in it for us out west."

"You are still carrying out your ideas with respect to the invasion of our Northwest."

"Invasion is nonsense. Our lines are reaching out to get a share of business which cannot be handled by your lines, and threatened, otherwise, to come, by any number of lines. I can make confident prediction as to the future of the western part of the country. There will be a population there of 20,000,000 in time. You have the finest and largest wheat belt in the world. There is business there for us all. We have only got to take the things of the west."

"Your coming in will have the effect of diverting our trade to American channels."

"Not necessarily."

"The C.P.R., however, does not intend eventually to allow you to have a walk-over."

"My friend, Shaughnessy is quite alert, was Mr. Hill's tribute."

D. O. ROBILIN'S NEW JOB.

Coates & Co., the Famous English Distillers Make Him Their Canadian Representative.

News of distinct interest to an extensive trade in Canada for a recent announcement that Messrs. Coates & Co., the famous distillers of F. O. Roblin of Toronto to the sole agency in Canada for their well-known Coates' Plymouth gin, brandy, and other liquors.

In effect, the appointment is a direct testimonial to the success Mr. Roblin has scored in similar trade in Canada for the past six months, having spent several years in the west.

News of distinct interest to an extensive trade in Canada for a recent announcement that Messrs. Coates & Co., the famous distillers of F. O. Roblin of Toronto to the sole agency in Canada for their well-known Coates' Plymouth gin, brandy, and other liquors.

In effect, the appointment is a direct testimonial to the success Mr. Roblin has scored in similar trade in Canada for the past six months, having spent several years in the west.

News of distinct interest to an extensive trade in Canada for a recent announcement that Messrs. Coates & Co., the famous distillers of F. O. Roblin of Toronto to the sole agency in Canada for their well-known Coates' Plymouth gin, brandy, and other liquors.

In effect, the appointment is a direct testimonial to the success Mr. Roblin has scored in similar trade in Canada for the past six months, having spent several years in the west.

Doings of the Harness Horses

Gallagher Wins at Iona, Mich.

Vance Nuckols, the Cleveland Grand Circuit Reinsman, Has Entries at Listowel.

Vance Nuckols of Cleveland has several entries at Listowel, where the Canadian circuit chasers will begin Wednesday. There will also be several other new performers shown up this week, including the horses owned by W. C. Kidd of Listowel.

Up to date this season Jack Rombough, who has been campaigning on the big tracks for several years past, but who is now racing on the Canadian circuit, has won eight races. His string, which includes Darkie (1:07 1/4), Point (2:04), Ella Nevada, Peter Miller and Alpha Hal, is certainly a select one. All but the last named have already won this year, and besides, Rombough drove Anna V. Brino to victory at Seaford. The latter is owned by Charles Burnside of Kincardine.

The mile of La Pointe's in 2:00 at Seaford last week was certainly a phenomenal one considering that the race season is not started. So far, the free-for-all pacers have not come anywhere near the time which they have to make a good money-earner.

Lady May (2:04), owned by John A. Chantler of this city, is back home from Terre Haute, Ind., where she has received early training. Her first start of the year will be at Stratford next week, when she will measure strides with Gallagher (2:03), Capt. Sphinx (2:04), Byrl Wikes (2:04), Darkie Hal (2:07 1/4), and some others in the free-for-all.

The string of horses owned by L. H. Edmunds of Kincardine, Ontario, and Sidney Mac were shipped back home from Seaford. The hard racing they were subjected to early in the season put them out of commission.

The 3-year-old pacer Bert Esowick, owned by Russ McGirr of Seaford, is one of the speediest and best going pacers yet shown in this country. He was right up second to Ian Bar at Seaford in each of the first two heats, which stamps him as more than a good performer. Ian Bar is the little best that we have ever seen in this country, so it is no wonder that he has to play second fiddle to a colt like him.

Brantford parties have been negotiating for the purchase of the Sarnia pacer, J. Wilkes, owned by Moore Bros., but so far no deal has been put thru. This horse is a very shifty performer, and is sure to win many races this season.

At a meeting of the old, old-timers, held at the Commercial Hotel last night, the Canadian circuit races there last night were known as the "old-timers" race. Charley Ray of this city and John Jones of Kincardine each took a prominent part in the proceedings, where old-time racers talked over. Lower and Ray began their careers as horsemen with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is shown by the fact that the former is responsible for the success of the good trotting mare Ella Nevada, owned by Welly Almas of Brantford, and Ray began his career as a horseman with the thoroughbreds, and trained gallopers when the races were of two-mile heats. That neither one has lost any of his skill is