

FINANCIAL BROKERS

OSLER & HAMMOND
Stock Brokers and Financial Agents

F. H. GOOCH,
Fire Insurance Underwriter and Adjuster, Special Attention to Brokerage

Stocks, Bonds, Etc.,
Toronto, Montreal and New York Stock Exchange, and GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Ferguson & Blaikie
Stock Brokers,
Toronto-Street.

FRANK GAYLEY,
REAL ESTATE AND FINANCIAL 10 Jordan Street, Toronto.

A. E. AMES & CO.
Bankers and Brokers.
Money to Lend on marketable Stocks and Bonds.

CUMMINGS & CO.
Brokers, 4 Victoria Street.
New York Stock Exchange, Chicago, Provisions.

STOCKS, GRAIN, PROVISIONS DIRECT WIRES
to all exchanges. Write for daily market letter.

J. A. GORMALY & CO.
56 and 58 VICTORIA ST.
Phone 113. Freehold Loan Bldg.

HENRY A. KING & CO.
STOCKS, GRAIN, PROVISIONS.
Private Wires. Telephone 2031.

A. P. BURRITT & CO.
Members Toronto Stock Exchange.
STOCKS, BONDS, GRAIN AND
PROVISIONS

JOHN STARK & CO.,
Members Toronto Stock Exchange.
26 Toronto Street.
MONEY INVESTED CAREFULLY in Stocks, Debentures, Mortgages, Com-pans, Interest, Rents collected.

R. H. TEMPLE,
Member Toronto Stock Exchange, 12 MELINDA STREET.
Stock Broker and Financial Agent

W. A. LEE & SON
Real Estate, Insurance and Financial Brokers,
GENERAL AGENTS

WESTERN Fire and Marine Assurance Co.
NORTHWESTERN Fire Insurance Co.
NATIONAL Fire Assurance Co.
CANADIAN Fire and Marine Insurance Co.

PRODUCERS DEALERS.
H. J. ASH,
Commission Merchant,
234 CHURCH STREET.

Pork Butchers and Butchers
Can be supplied with Fresh Farmers Feet Pork in hams, loaves, racks, shoulders, etc., at all times.

BARRIE MEAT PACKING CO., 8 Francis Street.
"it Pays to be Correct."
A regular monthly audit ensures correctness. Try it.

WILLIAM FAHEY,
Auditor and Real Estate Accountant, 49 King Street West

FRED W. ROBERTS,
MANNING ARCADE,
Representing Quebec Fire Assurance Co., Manufacturers and General Agents Co.; Real Estate Broker; Accounts and Rents Collected.

WILLIAMS
PANOS
NINETEENTH YEAR

MUSKETS OUGHT TO BE SENT WITH THE FOOD.
Senator Thurston Says It Is Time America Took Part in Cuba.

Officers of the British Navy Leave Suddenly for Washington—Consider Why? Would be the Result of American Interference—Spain Cannot Avail Herself of the Treaty of Paris.

Washington, March 24.—Senator Thurston, who has recently returned from a tour of the Island of Cuba, delivered a speech in the Senate to-day on the subject of Cuba. Mr. Thurston prefaced his remarks by saying:

"Mr. President—I am here by command of silent lips to speak on and for all upon the Cuban situation. I trust that no one has expected anything sensational from me. God forbid that the bitterness of a personal loss should induce me to color in the slightest degree the statement that I feel it my duty to make. I shall endeavor to be honest, conservative, and just. I have no purpose to stir the public passion in any action not necessary and imperative to meet the duties which the duties of American responsibility, Christian humanity, and national honor. I do not think this task is too great, but I do not think I can satisfy my conscience except by speaking, and speaking now."

Mr. Thurston then tersely summarized his observations and conclusions as follows:
"After three years of warfare and the use of 225,000 Spanish troops Spain has lost control of every foot of Cuba and surrounded by an actual investment and protected by a fortified picket line.

"She holds possession with her army of the fortified seaboard towns, because they are under the virtual protection of the fleet, the interior which the revolutionists cannot cope.
"The revolutionists are in absolute and peaceful possession of the interior of nearly one-half of the island, including the eastern provinces of Santiago de Cuba and Puerto Rico.
"Under the inhuman policy of Weyler not less than 400,000 self-supporting, peaceable, defenseless, and industrious people were driven from their homes in the agricultural portions of the Spanish provinces to remote and sterile spots upon the barren waste outside the residence portion of the cities and within the range of the rifle of the Spanish troops. A little way beyond. Slow starvation was their inevitable fate. A conservative estimate of the number of these people who have already perished from starvation, such a spectacle exceeds the scenes of the Inferno as painted by Dante.

"Spain cannot put an end to the existing condition, she cannot conquer the insurgents. She cannot retrench her sovereignty over any considerable portion of the interior of the island. The revolutionists, while able to maintain themselves, cannot drive the Spanish army from the fortified sea coast towns.
"Spain's position is now such that understand it, but a chaos of devastation
and depopulation of undefined duration, whose end is not in sight, is now in the hands of the island.
"Of the 225,000 soldiers Spain has sent to Cuba, less than 60,000 were now available for duty. The remainder are dead, sick in hospitals, or returned to Spain incapacitated. It was currently estimated that 100,000 new sick in the hospitals of the island.

"Silent and Famine.
"Men, women and children stand silent, famine-stricken. Their only appeal comes from their sad eyes, through which one looks as through an open window into their soul-stricken souls.
"The Government of Spain has not and will not appropriate one dollar to save the lives of the Cuban people. The
revolutionists, while able to maintain
themselves, cannot drive the Spanish
army from the fortified sea coast towns.
"Spain's position is now such that
understand it, but a chaos of devastation
and depopulation of undefined duration, whose end is not in sight, is now
in the hands of the island.

"The Government of Spain has not and
will not appropriate one dollar to save
the lives of the Cuban people. The
revolutionists, while able to maintain
themselves, cannot drive the Spanish
army from the fortified sea coast towns.
"Spain's position is now such that
understand it, but a chaos of devastation
and depopulation of undefined duration, whose end is not in sight, is now
in the hands of the island.

"The Government of Spain has not and
will not appropriate one dollar to save
the lives of the Cuban people. The
revolutionists, while able to maintain
themselves, cannot drive the Spanish
army from the fortified sea coast towns.
"Spain's position is now such that
understand it, but a chaos of devastation
and depopulation of undefined duration, whose end is not in sight, is now
in the hands of the island.

"The Government of Spain has not and
will not appropriate one dollar to save
the lives of the Cuban people. The
revolutionists, while able to maintain
themselves, cannot drive the Spanish
army from the fortified sea coast towns.
"Spain's position is now such that
understand it, but a chaos of devastation
and depopulation of undefined duration, whose end is not in sight, is now
in the hands of the island.

"The Government of Spain has not and
will not appropriate one dollar to save
the lives of the Cuban people. The
revolutionists, while able to maintain
themselves, cannot drive the Spanish
army from the fortified sea coast towns.
"Spain's position is now such that
understand it, but a chaos of devastation
and depopulation of undefined duration, whose end is not in sight, is now
in the hands of the island.

"The Government of Spain has not and
will not appropriate one dollar to save
the lives of the Cuban people. The
revolutionists, while able to maintain
themselves, cannot drive the Spanish
army from the fortified sea coast towns.
"Spain's position is now such that
understand it, but a chaos of devastation
and depopulation of undefined duration, whose end is not in sight, is now
in the hands of the island.

"The Government of Spain has not and
will not appropriate one dollar to save
the lives of the Cuban people. The
revolutionists, while able to maintain
themselves, cannot drive the Spanish
army from the fortified sea coast towns.
"Spain's position is now such that
understand it, but a chaos of devastation
and depopulation of undefined duration, whose end is not in sight, is now
in the hands of the island.

"The Government of Spain has not and
will not appropriate one dollar to save
the lives of the Cuban people. The
revolutionists, while able to maintain
themselves, cannot drive the Spanish
army from the fortified sea coast towns.
"Spain's position is now such that
understand it, but a chaos of devastation
and depopulation of undefined duration, whose end is not in sight, is now
in the hands of the island.

THE SENATE RECALLED
THE HOUSE RECALLED
SENATE TO

to blow up the wreck with dynamite, and that permission to do so had been refused him.
"The Cabinet empowered the Minister for Foreign Affairs, Senor Guillon, to watch the situation with the view of securing justice done and defending the rights of Spain.
"The Minister of Finance, Senor Puga, declares the resources were sufficient for all war expenses until the new chambers met.

Spanish Fleet Moving.
Washington, D.C., March 24.—The day before the arrival of the report of the Maine Court of Inquiry was one of unexampled activity in official quarters.
Advices came early that the Spanish torpedo flotilla had sailed from the Canaries for Porto Rico and from this moment the most energetic warfare measures followed one another in constant succession. The movement of this fleet had been watched with the keenest interest, as it was felt to involve serious possibilities which might compel the United States Government to postpone against the movement of a hostile character. Immediately on the receipt of the official despatches from an American naval attaché abroad, only after announcing the sailing of the fleet, the fact was made known to the President, and an earnest conference was held between him and Secretary Long and Assistant Secretary Roosevelt. The seriousness of the move was fully considered, and the President was advised that naval strategists regarded it as essential that the torpedo fleet should not be allowed to reach western waters. What, if any, conclusion was reached, is not known.

The Report Arrives.
Washington, D.C., March 24.—Lieut.
Commander Mackay and his naval captains bearing the report of the Maine Court of Inquiry reached Washington at 9:30 o'clock to-night, the train being exactly on time. The crowd was so dense at the depot that the party left the train outside the shed and in carriages for the Ebbitt House, where the officers will spend the night. They were met at the station by an officer of the Navy Department, who informed them that the Secretary of the Navy would not receive the report to-night.

BETTER ROADS WANTED.
A Committee of the C. W. A. Will Wait on the City Engineer. Brick All the Car Tracks.
The wretched state of many of the streets which the bicyclists have to use will be brought to the notice of the City Engineer this morning by the House and Touring Committee of the Toronto Branch of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association.
Messrs. W. B. Howson, A. E. Walton, G.
E. Kingston and Stanley Brown, will call the city engineer's attention to the fact that it is dangerous to life to ride on such thoroughfares as College-street, and King-street west, and that the city should be induced to improve the roads. The committee will ask that the city engineer be induced to use the best material for the roads, and that the city should be induced to use the best material for the roads, and that the city should be induced to use the best material for the roads.

Cliffy Sifton (the boy fisherman): I've got him, I've got him, Uncle Bowell.
UNCLE BOWELL: He's got you, you mean, unless I cut you loose.

DEATH OF BARRISTER McLEAN.
Falls a Victim to Consumption's Scourge—He Was Formerly Prominent in Toronto.
A. G. McLean, late of this city, died at Strathroy on Wednesday evening, in 1888.
He was a prominent member of the Strathroy and Strathroy Collegiate Institute and came to Toronto, where he studied law and at the same time taught a night school. He was married in 1850, and was elected President of the Toronto Conservative Association in 1885.
He became head of the firm of McLean & McLean, and was a member of the C.P.E.R. train to-night, and the funeral will take place in that village on Saturday evening.

DEATH OF LOUIS P. KRIBS.
Ottawa, March 24.—(Special)—Profound regret is felt in Parliamentary and newspaper circles at the untimely death of Louis P. Kribs, the well-known journalist.
Mr. Kribs arrived in Ottawa just a fortnight ago, and the day after his arrival was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs.
His condition has varied considerably since then, but this morning he was noticed to be gradually sinking. When death came he was attended by his wife and brother, Mr.
W. A. Kribs, M.L.A.
The remains were conveyed to Hepler by the C.P.E.R. train to-night, and the funeral will take place in that village on Saturday evening.

GEORGE PURVES' FATAL FALL.
Slipped From the Roof Where He Was Working and Broke His Neck—Was Formerly a Prominent Tradesman.
While at work on the roof near the attic window in the rear portion of 306 Richmond-street west, at 2:15 yesterday afternoon, George Purves, of 301 Sackville-street, a carpenter, nearly 60 years of age, overbalanced as he was handling a heavy piece of scantling, and fell to the ground, a distance of 30 feet. He neck was broken, and he expired a few minutes after his awful fall.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of a novice. Louis went to work in the new reporters' usual way and developed more and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe discovered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he became editor and proprietor of The Walkerton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that office was sent to his home, where he died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

RUSSIA HAS CHINA BY THE THROAT And Great Britain May Have to Take Action Immediately.

London, March 25.—The Pekin correspondent of The Times says: "China yesterday (Wednesday) agreed to all the Russian demands. The following are the concessions: A lease of Port Arthur for 25 years as a fortified naval base; a lease of Ta Lien Wan for 25 years, as an open port and as the terminus of the trans-Manchurian railway with a right of fortification, and the right for the Russians to construct a railway from Petchin in Manchuria to the Sungari River to Ta Lien Wan and Port Arthur on the same terms as stipulated in the case of the trans-Manchurian railway.
"China saves her face by retaining nominal sovereign rights, which, however, she is powerless to assert, the lease being equivalent to cession." The Times, referring editorially to the despatch of its Pekin correspondent as to the Chinese concessions to Russia, says:

"Newspapers are so serious that it may compel England to take immediate action. If the Russian demands are allowed to prevail we shall be obliged to recognize the fact that China is about to be rapidly reduced to the position of the Khanates of Central Asia, first terrorized and paralyzed and ultimately swallowed up by Russia."
The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says: "All classes of the Russian army reserve have been warned to hold themselves in readiness to be summoned to service, and on account of the difficulties in Corea, it has been decided to despatch to East Asia a corps of 50,000 men of the first line of reservists.
"Sir Chin Chen, the Chinese Minister, paid a hurried visit to the Foreign Office this morning and remained three quarters of an hour."

FINANCIERS AVERSE TO WAR
English and American Bankers Bring Pressure to Bear.

Will Advance Spain the Funds if—
The United States Demand an Indemnity—The Rothschilds in Sympathy With the Scheme—War Would Involve the Commerce of All Nations—Spain Dare Not Assume an Indemnity.

London (Eng.), March 24.—The imminence of the Cuban crisis has aroused financiers of the United States to avert war. A movement to this end is on foot in Lombard-street, and American bankers who are leading in the operation of the Rothschilds.
The American bankers are endeavoring to prevent war by the influence of all nations which age to the Rothschilds. The financiers are endeavoring to prevent war by the influence of all nations which age to the Rothschilds. The financiers are endeavoring to prevent war by the influence of all nations which age to the Rothschilds.

MR. CHARLTON WANTED TO TEST THE HOUSE.
Insisted on Resurrecting His Sunday Newspaper Bill.

The Result Was to Put a Strong Nail in the Coffin of the Dead Measure—Mr.
Brett's Proposal to Bonus Farmers for Butter Making Negated in a Thin House—Yesterday's Work in the Commons.

Ottawa, March 24.—(Special)—The House of Commons today resurrected the Sunday Newspaper Bill. It had been knocked out in committee the night before by a motion of Mr. Bennett. Such a vote is not a vote on the bill, but a vote on the motion. Mr. Bennett's motion was not recorded, and Mr. Charlton determined to test the House. He proposed to bring the bill back, and the result of his motion would be to put a strong nail in the coffin of the dead measure.

THE SPRING FLOODS.
Reports from towns situated upon the Ohio river and its branches state that there has been great damage caused by the spring freshets. At Pittsburg, Pa., the Allegheny River registered a rise in the most destructive known since the memorable one of 1884. The lowlands of the Ohio are flooded to a depth of 10 to 15 feet. All the railroads entering in these lowlands are suspended. No loss of property or life has been reported. The amount of property damaged is estimated at $100,000 in the Allegheny region.

GEORGE PURVES' FATAL FALL.
Slipped From the Roof Where He Was
Working and Broke His Neck—Was Formerly a Prominent Tradesman.

While at work on the roof near the attic
window in the rear portion of 306 Richmond-street west, at 2:15 yesterday afternoon, George Purves, of 301 Sackville-street,
a carpenter, nearly 60 years of age, over-
balanced as he was handling a heavy piece
of scantling, and fell to the ground, a distance of 30 feet. He neck was broken, and
he expired a few minutes after his awful
fall.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

THE LATE L. P. KRIBS.
Died and decided to start him in at the salary of
a novice. Louis went to work in the new
reporters' usual way and developed more
and more rapidly. He soon got a
"raise" for the head of The Globe dis-
covered that he had secured a diamond in
the rough. After working a short time for
The Globe Mr. Kribs removed to Barrie
and edited The Advance. Afterward he be-
came editor and proprietor of The Walk-
erton Herald, and in 1884, having sold that
office was sent to his home, where he
died. The late Mr. Kribs was a man of
great energy and ability, and his death
is a great loss to the newspaper world.

MACKINTOSHES
Ladies' and Gents', New Patterns and Styles in stock and made to order.

THE TORONTO RUBBER CO., Limited 28 King St. W. (Manning Arcade).