Gretna Green
3-1, Won

See, but I am putting them over, and why shouldn't I? Nobody on the turf is connected better with the right horse than your "table Bill Dixon."

Boys, this meeting is "proving a bonanza" for me and my bunch of sharpshooters. Look at the good ones I've just put over:

Saturday's Big Sensation Was
Golden Castle
100-1, 3rd

Here was a trick that was backed down from 100 to 1 to 20 to 1 at the post. "Pat Moran" and myself would not have been so sure of it if we were talking about it if this one won. At that we got 10 to 1 to show.

Monday's Solitary One-Horse
Wire
Quantico
15-1, Won

How did I get hep to him? Any colt that can breeze a quarter down the back stretch in 25 seconds is good enough to run for my coin.

Tuesday's One Solitary Horse Wire
The Monk
10-1, Won

Here was a trick that I knew that "Billy Gault" had all framed up to give first shot out of the box. "Mr. Toronto Turfite" did anybody even mention his name to you? Certainly not, as the little, old inside info, alone could put you wise, as this was his first start.

Wednesday's Solitary One-Horse
Wire
Quantico, 3-1, Won

I told you all to go to "Quantico" for the family plate, as he was a good colt and would surely repeat. Was I right?

TO-DAY'S BIG PIPE
Saturday 15-1

I won't say too much about this one, as too much publicity won't help the price any, but will say this, that if you want "a long run" that will win sure, this will be the one to hop on to. Try them all, and when you find out that they know nothing, come to me, and I will show you that I know something, and you will start in with me sooner or later, so why not start now?

John Tucker
Start and Win

WEDNESDAY-NIMBUS... LOST
TUESDAY-BON KEISO... 7-2, WON
MONDAY-STATSMAN... SCRATCHED
SATURDAY-RED RIVER... 9-10, WON

8-1
