A Sucide The dead body of Norman Case, with un empty bottle labeled "Carbolic acid" lying beside it, was found this morning in a boathouse near the foot of Wellington-street. A note was also found in which the suicide said that he had taken the acid because he was tired of life and requested that A. P. Case, I Worth-street, Detroit, should be notified. Case was about 50 years of age, and had been out of work for some time. He previously worked as a machine in the Sawyer-Massey Works, and had boarded at the corner of Wellington and Kelly-streets. He had no lightly dealing the same instant.

HUNTING FOR BIG GAME.

The Highlands of Ontario is an ideal spot for the sportsman during the open hunting season for big game. In the Temagami region moose are plentifu! and may be killed during the period from Oct. 16 to Nov. 15. This territory is a forest preserve of vast expanse, and in addition to being the hunter's paradise, its waters abound with game fish of many species. The home of the Ontario Pipe Line v.
