

CHIEF CORONER TO CONDUCT INQUIRY

Mayor is in Favor of City Paying Grant to Bartlett's Parents.

WAITING FOR DOCTORS

Complaint Made That Men Are Kept Stripped Too Long.

That there will be a thorough investigation into the death of W. J. A. Bartlett, who died of pneumonia following a cold believed to have been contracted while taking his medical examination, is assured by Chief Coroner Dr. A. Jukes Johnson, who will personally conduct the inquiry, following the withdrawal of Dr. Julius London.

Dr. London made the preliminary examination, but withdrew on account of his connection with the militia as a captain in the Army Medical Corps. Dr. Johnson said that there would be a thorough inquiry, not only into the death of Bartlett, but the whole procedure of the medical examination will be investigated.

Major Church and members of the board of control also desire to see a thorough investigation made and the mayor stated yesterday that he had received many complaints about the conditions at the armories.

He thought that the city should make a grant of $1,000 to the parents of the man, and held that they were entitled to it as the father's son was in the militia.

The mayor has not yet received a reply from the message he sent to Major-General Mewburn, minister of militia and defense, asking for an investigation.

WORK ON HARBOR IS NOT TO BE STOPPED

Hon. Frank Carvell, Minister of Public Works, Se Intimates White in the City.

Hon. Frank Carvell, minister of public works in Sir Robert Borden's union cabinet, remained in the city for a "short time" yesterday morning while on his way to Hamilton.

He was shown the harbor improvement work by L. H. Clarke, chairman of the Toronto Harbor Commissioners; E. L. Cousins, general manager; Fred Hind, resident government engineer; and "Ricker Miller," the inspection engineer made for the purpose of allowing the minister to ascertain whether he was justified in his suggestion that government work on the harbor be closed down.

When asked if he intended to stop all harbor improvement, he declared that he had never made the statement. "This was wartime," he added, "and anything that could be deferred would be left over for awhile."

"There is a certain amount of work," he continued, "such as protecting what has already been done with breakwaters that will not be stopped. It is not a case of going back on any contracts that we have entered into, but the work must come first, and we need what money we have for war purposes."

LICENSE BOARD STOPS SALE OF PORT WINES

Many Medications Varieties Are Found to Have Too High an Alcoholic Content.

Instructions have been issued by the Ontario License Board to license inspectors ordering them to notify all druggists in their districts that the sale of Wilson's Invalid Port Wine, Hall's Wine, Dr. Emerson's Invalid Port, Peavy's Port Wine, Montkess Port Wine, Puritan Port Wine, Dr. Kilborn's Invalid Port Wine, Dr. Coventry's Invalid Port Wine, Dr. Francis's Invalid Port Wine, and Vin de France, as at present advertised, will be considered as a contravention of the Ontario Temperance Act.

This decision was reached at the conclusion of the analysis of these medicated wines to determine their alcoholic content, and the board is of the opinion that they may now be sold on a doctor's certificate only, and in quantities not exceeding six ounces at one time.

Six of these brands, the Montkess, Puritan, Dr. Kilborn, Coventry's, St. Francis's and Peavy's, are no longer being sold by the manufacturers, and the board has been notified that the makers of Gordon's Health Wine have not only stopped selling their product, but have recalled that already sold to dealers.

Druggists who persist in selling any of these wines contrary to instructions will be liable for prosecution. Inspectors will take samples of that sold and if they prove to contain an abnormal percentage of alcohol action will no doubt be entered against the offenders.

FLAG INCIDENT IS AGAIN DISCUSSED

Commissioner Wilson Maintains That He Meant No Disrespect When He Removed the Decoration.

The flag incident was the first matter taken up by the board of arbitration investigating the dispute between Street Commissioner Wilson and his employees at a private session held in the city hall yesterday. W. D. Kennedy and Charles Mitchell put in the evidence of the men, and the commissioner stated that he had taken the small flag off one of the trucks in the western city ward, but had not thrown it on the ground and had intended no disrespect toward the flag.

D. A. Carey, the chairman, announced that the conference between the street commissioner and his men had resulted in a better feeling and had led to the adjustment of some of the points in dispute.

Further matters in dispute were taken up at a sitting in the afternoon.

COMMISSIONER FORMAN SUGGESTS TWO RATES

Would Differentiate Between Taxes on Land and on Improvements.

"The assessment law was discussed by Ald. Ball's committee of the city council yesterday afternoon. Mayor Forman suggested that there should be some provision under which newly-assessed territory could be assessed on the public improvements made in it.

"The people voted on a modified form of the law," said Ald. Ball. "The objection to the present law is that it is a lower rate than land. I propose that we should have two tax rates, one on land improvements and the other on land values. We should differentiate the rates."

Ald. Ball: "I propose to do it in a very modified way, make it optional on the council to call it on."

JAIL FARM A SINK HOLE

So Says Mayor Church, Who Thinks Institution Should Be Self-Sustaining

Mayor Church is sending a memorandum to the board of control containing a number of suggestions for greater economy in maintaining the jail farms and the jail. He believes the institutions should be self-sustaining.

The two farms are encumbered with heavy debt charges and the board should consider maintaining one institution instead of three.

The present scheme lacks business administration and it is alleged that too many politicians hold positions of honor in the jail.

The good work of the late Mr. Findlay is not being continued, he asserts.

COLONEL JOHN McMILLAN, Chief Secretary for Eastern Canada and Newfoundland, who is in charge of the seven-day Salvation Army congress which opened last night.

SALVATION ARMY OPENS CONGRESS IN TEMPLE

The Need of a Religious Revival One of the Predominant Notes of Meeting.

The opening session of the Salvation Army Congress was held last night in the Salvation Army Temple, Commissioner Richards, who was in the chair, made the opening address and was received with great applause.

In his address the commissioner said that it was a remarkable coincidence that while he had not known anything about the motto which was stretched across the balcony, "Tray for the Revival of Religion," he had noted down the same motto in his diary.

Col. McMILLAN, chief secretary, welcomed the delegates to the congress and introduced the speakers.

Brigadier Morehead of Montreal, who represents the divisional officers in the province, was the first speaker. He addressed the delegates and was received with great applause.

Chaplain Captain White, military representative, who was greeted with great applause, stated that he was grateful to have the opportunity of representing the men in khaki.

He said that it was a great responsibility, and his colonel had just intimated that he was wanted for service overseas. It was his experience, he continued, that the men of today, and especially the boys in khaki, had absolutely no faith in or sympathy for the religious message that did not come from the world, but from the Spirit of God.

The commission, in closing remarks, used the words "Tray for the Revival of Religion," and pointed out that the revival of religion is the requisite of spiritual activity, and that if a revival is to be brought about, it can only be done by the help of God.

Among the delegates at the congress are Adjutant Layman of Montreal, representing field and local officers; Adjutant Burdon of Montreal, representing the Young People's work; and Lt.-Col. Smetton, financial secretary, representing headquarters and men and women's social officers.

READY FOR SCHOOL CAMPAIGN

Committee of Business Men Will Visit Schools to Interest Pupils

R. B. Morley, secretary-treasurer of the Ontario Safety League, has taken over the publicity end of the campaign among the school children of the city on behalf of the liberty loan.

Mr. Morley told The World that the bulletin from the government would not be in his possession until next Monday. There were four bulletins classed according to the ages of the children. Mr. Morley will be assisted by a committee of ten or twelve business men, who will go into the schools and co-operate with the principals and teachers in bringing the fact of the liberty loan before the pupils.

The hope is that the children will talk the matter up at home and interest members of another committee will undertake the sales in the schools.

Whipping a Tired Horse Does Not Give Him Strength

YOU may whip a tired horse so that he will win a race or get his load over a bad spot in the road, but that does not add to his strength. In reality it further depletes his reserve of strength and leaves him exhausted.

Neither Do Stimulants Restore the Tired, Worn-out Nerves

ary relief with the new method of reconstructing the starved and depleted nerve cells.

And so it is with the nerves of the human body. You may by use of stimulants accomplish the work in hand or by deadening the nerves with narcotics you may stop the headaches.

The Food Cure

A little patience is required to follow out this building-up process, but this is the only way in which disease of the nerves can be really cured. The nerves are starved for proper nourishment. You supply the nutrition in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The results are certain, because you are working hand in hand with Nature.

Any temporary relief obtained is won at an enormous expense to the nervous system and you are left more exhausted than ever.

Mrs. A. North, Grand Street North, Brantford, Ont., writes: "Both my husband and I can speak very highly of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, having used it with splendid results. My husband suffered from weakness and a run-down system, and became so bad he finally had to give up work. He also had spells of melancholia. He commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after a treatment of this medicine I never saw such a change in anybody. He is now able to attend to his work, and is enjoying splendid health."

As strength is restored the appetite is sharpened, digestion improves, you get the good of the food you eat, headaches disappear, you find yourself gaining in confidence, in vigor and in energy. You begin to have new ambitions, to enjoy your work and to feel again that life is really worth living.

The introduction of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food was revolutionary in the treatment of nervous diseases, because it replaced the old idea of obtaining temporary relief with the new method of reconstructing the starved and depleted nerve cells.

Before I started taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I was troubled with nervousness, sleeplessness and a pain around the heart. The Nerve Food built up my system, made me feel stronger in every way, and relieved me of the annoying symptoms from which I had suffered. We always keep Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in the house ready for use in case it is needed."

When a man's nerves are starved, the first thing he notices is that he has lost his appetite. He has no interest in his work, and he is unable to do his duty. He is a nervous wreck, and he is in need of a good rest. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the only thing that can help him. It will restore his strength, sharpen his appetite, and improve his digestion. He will be able to do his work again, and he will feel that life is worth living.
