Brockville May Make Good.

Brockville Jan. 2.—(Special.)—It looks as the the Brockvilles may make good in the Federal Hockey League, judging from their performance Bere this evening in the first match, played under ideal weather conditions, against the Montagnards of Montreal. Nearly 2000 spectators went wild with delight when the last whistle blew. The score then stood 10 to 3 for the home team, but it might have been larger except for the px-ceedingly clever work of the Montagnards goalkeeper, who withstood sasults successfully time and again.
