Prepare an iron kettle with a sufficient quantity of water to admit the yarn or cloth to be worked in the dye without being crowded.—bring the water to a scalding heat—then put in the yarn or cloth a few minutes—when it is thoroughly wet, take it out and drain it—in the next place add the blue vitriol, and when dissolved, and the water skimmed carefully, put in the material to be colored, and let it remain half an hour at a scalding heat, airing it occasionally—then take it out and rinse it in soft water—the vitriol water may now be emptied into a separate vessel, and the extract of logwood, dissolved in a sufficient quantity of water, brought to a scalding heat and skimmed—put in the cloth, keeping the dye at the same temperature, and let it remain half an hour, airing it frequently—then take it out and drain it—add the vitriol water to the dye, and put it in again, and let it remain fifteen minutes, airing as before—cleanse it well.
