

year, and that continued good friendship exists among the members and office-bearers of the Society generally. With such good-fellowship the good the Society can accomplish is only limited by the means at its disposal.

Your Council regrets that the backwardness of the collections, and other causes, necessitated the adjournment of the annual meeting to this date. The real work of this Society has been carefully and economically carried on, and those dependent on its ministry have received the needed help and succor. And now, in closing this the thirty-third annual Report of the Irish Protestant Benevolent Society, your Council feel that they have carried out, so far as in their power lay, the objects for which this Society was founded.

The whole respectfully submitted.

DAVID H. HENDERSON,

President.

THOMAS S. ARNTON,

Hon. Secy.

