Little Schooner Put U-Boat To Flight French Government Pays Honor to Gallant Boatswain and Crew

Paris, Oct. 3.—The minister of marine has commended in navy orders the French sailing vessel Kleber, of 277 tons, which, on September 7, stood up to a big German submarine off a single south of Brittany and placed a single soul so well that her opponent retreated discomfited after three hours of stirring battle.

Pierre Monet, the boatswain, who fought the ship after the captain of the Kleber was killed, has been decorated with the Legion of Honor, while the twelve men of the crew, several of whom were wounded, have been given war crosses. Several members of the crew who particularly distinguished themselves received the military medal in addition to the war cross.

Everybody Can Clean Windows (SO THEY SAY)

But there is a difference in the cleaning and the time it takes, and the cheapest is to get the best. It may seem dear, but it is cheaper in the end. We have a 10-year experience in that line, and that means a lot to you. Telephone for our quotations. We have a man for that purpose.
