

and John Crooks, Esquire, Ruling Elder, were appointed a Committee to revise the Minutes, and the Clerk was authorized to draw up an abstract of the same and to print and distribute it among the members of the Synod.

It was resolved that at least one Sermon, besides that of the Moderator should be delivered at the Meetings of Synod, the Moderator to appoint the Preacher, and that at one of the Sermons a collection be made for the Missionary funds of the particular District in which the Synod shall be held.

The Synod appointed the next ordinary meeting to be held at York, on the first Thursday of August, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, at Twelve o'clock, noon.

Closed with prayer, and a blessing.
