FAREWELL OF 26TH TO HOME TOWN AS THEY SET OFF FOR THE FRONT

On the eve of their departure for the front, Lieut.-Colonel J. L. McAvity sent to Mayor Frink a farewell letter conveying his thanks for the interest the citizens have taken in the battalion. The letter, which was dated September 14, is as follows:
 "I wish to thank you on the eve of our departure for France (we will leave on the fifteenth at 10:30 p.m. via Folkestone) for your continued interest on our behalf. We are now at the parting, and I can assure you and the citizens of St. John that we always will do our best and do our duty by the king and the empire. I am very busy and I have had to burn the midnight oil to get this and other letters off. Again thanking you, I have the honor to be
 "Your obedient servant,
 (Sgd.) J. L. McAVITY,
 Lt.-Col. O. C. 26th,

DEATH OF MISS MARY COHOLAN

One of Best Singers St. John Has Produced—Had Been Ill Long Time
 The death of Miss Mary F. Coholan took place this morning at her residence in Main street, after a lengthy illness. She was a daughter of John and the late Alice Coholan. Besides her father she is survived by her mother, John F. Coholan, who is in the employ of the I. C. R., and two sisters, Mrs. Alexander McMillan, and Miss Nellie Coholan. The former is organist in Holy Trinity Church, and the latter in St. John the Baptist Church.
 Miss Coholan was a talented musician, and was one of the leading sopranos in the maritime provinces. When a young girl she showed exceptional talent and her singing attracted the attention of many. After studying in this city for some years, she went to Boston and there received lessons from a famous singing professor, Eichberg.
 After returning home, Miss Coholan sang at dedications of churches throughout the province, and also frequently appeared on the concert platform. Everywhere she was well received and her singing called forth much praise. She had a voice of great volume and musical sweetness. She was ever ready to assist at concerts for charitable purposes and became extremely popular.
 For some years Miss Coholan was leading soprano in St. Peter's church. Also she sang in the Cathedral choir and a few years ago she was soloist in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Montreal, and immigration chaplain at Quebec and Halifax.
 Three years ago her health began to fail and she was forced to discontinue singing. Since that time she had been confined to her home and was a host of friends not only in this city but throughout the maritime provinces, who will sincerely regret to hear of her death.

HALF BROTHER OF DR. COX FOUGHT UNDER BOTH IN AFRICA

Fredericton, Sept. 30.—Matthew J. Cox of Manchester, half brother of Dr. Philip Cox of the U.N.B., served under General Botha in his recent campaign in German Southwest Africa. Writing under date of August 15, he says he was at Octavia when the Germans surrendered to Botha. The enemy had 2,500 regulars, 2,800 civilians, thirty-eight field guns, forty-eight machine guns and sufficient ammunition to carry on for two years. They also had 25,000 cases of rum, or 8,000 bottles.
 A German major told Cox that the wells had been poisoned by civilians. Some Germans out there, he says, believe that their army has captured London and will soon send reinforcements to retake their country from the British.

ROMLEY CASE TO THE JURY THIS AFTERNOON

The trial of the case of the King vs. Mary Romley took place in the circuit court this morning. The prisoner was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of wounding with intent to do grievous bodily harm to William T. Hanley. The witnesses examined at the preliminary hearing gave practically the same testimony. The prisoner herself was the only witness examined for the defence. She was drunk, she said, and failed to remember anything of the affair. E. S. Ritchie addressed the jury for the defence and Attorney-General Baxter for the crown. The judge's charge will be given this afternoon following which the case will go to the jury.

The Busier the Better

The busier a store is—if it is efficiently managed—the better it can serve you. A manufacturer makes the lower his prices.
 Volume of business lessens cost of handling and for that reason means economies.
 The stores and the manufacturers who use newspaper advertising are busy.
 It pays to patronize them because the increased business gives better opportunities for service.

 "If in a month's time I am in shape to address a meeting at St. John I would give me a great pleasure to do so, especially in view of the fact that the citizens of the winter port city were so kind to me upon my arrival home."
