MONDAY'S BRITISH SEA-TALE IMPERIAL THEATRE. DEAD MEN TELL NO TALES. One man against six is the status in Vitagraph's Tom Terriss production, "Dead Men Tell No Tales." The six plotters blew up a sailing vessel in mid-ocean to steal a cargo of gold from Australia. They made their plans carefully so that none of the several hundred passengers and crew could escape alive; but one man foiled the plotters. He tracked them to Hattery Hill and single handedly, bested the lot. An all-star cast was engaged to make the picture, nearly all of whom are Londoners selected by Mr. Terriss, the eminent British producer. SPECIAL PRICES. EVENING: 25c. and 35c. GOLFERS WELL-TO-DO. Anything But Set of Clubs Found in Pawn Shops. New York, Jan. 21.—In the maelstrom of articles seen in a pawn-shop a recent investigation had shown the one thing which seems to be as rare as the dodo bird is the golf club. Whether golfers as a class are immune to pecuniary difficulties or whether their clubs are last on the list of "to be hocked articles in an emergency it seems that golf clubs are the only things which may not be found in Uncle's place. Things which there are no lack include musical instruments, pillows, garments of sundry sorts, in fact almost every conceivable article of use in life from a nursing bottle to basket handles, but rarely a set of clubs.
