Englishmen at Work.
English sportsmen are preparing for active participation in the Olympic games to be held at Antwerp, Belgium, next summer.

The athletes of Oxford and Cambridge are as yet unknown quantities, as they have just resumed work interrupted by the war.

Among the promising new men is W. A. Hill, a sprinter, who recently captained the English championship for the 100 and 200 yard events.

By playing a strong defensive game the Canadians defeated St. Patrick's of Toronto in Montreal last night by a score of 3 to 2.

The Senators had an easy time defeating Quebec and tallied twelve goals to their opponents one.

A Spilled Game.
Toronto, Jan. 22.—Dentals won from the University of Toronto in the senior O. H. A. fixture here last night by 7 to 5 in one of the most exciting games ever played in Toronto.

Chicago Gets Championships.
Chicago, Jan. 22.—Chicago was awarded the 1920 championship tournament of the Professional Golfers' Association yesterday. No date was set.

President Bill Vecek of the Chicago Cubs has arranged for a seven-game series for his team and the Frisco and Oakland clubs, to be played during the spring training campaign of the Cubs in California.

Roger Bresnahan is adding many new players to his Toledo Club and several of the old faces will be missing when the Mudhens take the field for the opening game of the American Association next season.

Billy Kopf, shortstop of the Reds, is a member of an athletic family. One of his brothers is a diamond star at Lehigh and still another is a basketball player at Dartmouth.

Tris Speaker is angling for a south-paw to round out the Cleveland pitching staff and is willing to hand over two right-handers if he can get the left-hander desired.

Larry Cheney, veteran boxer, may not be among those present when the Phillies assemble in the spring.

The Cleveland pitchers and catchers will begin work early in the new year.

Branch Rickey, after being criticised for making money out of the game, has declined an offer of $70,000 and four players for Rogers Hornsby, explaining that he would not want to serve with any other club that it would be useless to bid for the St. Louis star.

A report from Los Angeles is that Casey Stengel, who declined to finish the 1919 season with the Phillies after being traded to that club by the Pirates, has been prevailed upon by the Cardinals to sign a Philadelphia contract.

Johnny Lavan has branched out as a regular physician in St. Louis, but he is not ready to drop his baseball bat.

There is much speculation as to where Sherry Magee will land for next season.

The recent release of Terry Turner by the Mackmen ended the major league career of the oldest active player in the American League.

George Daus, Howard Ehmke, Dutch Leonard and Bernie Boland of the Detroit pitching staff have all returned to the major leagues.

The Thompson purchased a few days ago by the Browns was not Slugg Thompson, the outfit formerly with the Athletics, as reported.

Francis Carey writing Barney Dreyfuss is eagerly awaiting the time to start baseball again.

How far Rickey has progressed in this prospective is a matter for conjecture.

Paris, Jan. 21.—Johnny Griffith, welterweight, whose home is in Akron, Ohio, tonight knocked out "Bill" Glover, of London, in the third round of a bout held here.

Women As Boxing Judges.
Women in society promise to invade the ringside as boxing judges.

The preliminaries will take place at the league's "Cheer Canteen," Gramercy, Staten Island, to which the soldiers will be taken in ambulances of the motor corps.

The committee of patronesses are Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, Miss Anne Morgan, Mrs. George Barton French, Mrs. Littleton Fox, Miss Edith Morris, Miss Fanny Cottrell, Miss Maude Wetmore, Mrs. Adolph Ledenberg, Mrs. Francis Rogers, Miss Carmel Carroll, Miss Jean Roosevelt and Miss Janet Eisk.

Nearly 100 amateur boxers have registered for entry in the tournament.

Entrance is limited to fighters in the 120-pound and 130-pound classes.

The preliminaries will be continued on Wednesday evening at the "Cheer Canteen," when a different group of soldiers will witness the matches.

The judges will continue rendering their decisions until Saturday afternoon, when the finals and award of medals offered by the league will take place in New York at Grupp's Gymnasium.

Still another group of soldiers from the hospital will be brought to New York to attend the finals.

This last entertainment, however, will be a benefit for the "Cheer Canteen," and the public will be admitted by invitation tickets.

Professional boxers are to take part among the professionals announced are Jack Britton, Eddie Fitzsimmons, Norfink, Brock Brennan, Joe Welling, Johnny Shepard, Frank Moran, Benny Valger, Mickey Russell and Charlie Beecher.
